You must write a formal report for your employer in which you:

2. Apply each stage of the inclusive model of ethical decision-making (from your textbook) to the ethical dilemma
3. Discuss and evaluate the potential solutions you identify and make an argument for which solution you advise is most ethical.

How will I need to structure my work?

Use a formal report format with a title page, table of contents and sections. You should include numbered sections on:

- A description of the ethical dilemma
- A summary of how the Inclusive Model works (including the essential dimensions)
- Mapped legitimacy
- Information-gathering options
- Alternative approaches and actions available to you
- An analysis of your decision-making process
- An evaluation of and decision on the range of hypothetical outcomes you identify

Submit via EQ-Online on or before the due date.

Why is this task important for my learning?

This task will help prepare you for placement and employment by giving you an opportunity to demonstrate the application of an ethical decision-making process. It will help prepare you for employment interviews where you may be asked to describe how you would approach an ethical dilemma.

It will enable you to demonstrate to your peers and future potential employers that you can describe and discuss theories and concepts of ethics and approaches to ethical decision-making (ULO 2).

Which Graduate Attributes will I be developing through this task?

- demonstrate a commitment to the service of humanity through an expression of humility and compassion
