The Reformation

The Reformation was a major religious movement in the 16th century that led to the creation of Protestant churches. It began in 1517 when Martin Luther posted his 95 Theses on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany. Luther criticized the Catholic Church's practices, such as the sale of indulgences, and argued for a return to the Bible as the sole source of authority. Other reformers, like John Calvin and Ulrich Zwingli, also challenged Catholic teachings and practices. The Reformation led to the establishment of new churches and the eventual split of Western Christianity into Catholic and Protestant branches.
