European Public Administration And Informatization:

European Public Administration and Informatization P. Frissen, 1992 The result of an international comparative research project on informatization in European public administration this work addresses information policies large scale information systems informational infrastructure and water policy and informatization and administrative modernization European Public Administration and Informatization ,1992 Information Technology in Government Helen Margetts, 2012-10-12 This book situates information technology at the centre of public policy and management IT is now a vital part of any government organisation opening new policy windows and enabling a vast range of tasks to be carried out faster and more efficiently But it has also introduced new problems and challenges Four in depth case studies demonstrate how information systems have become inextricably linked with the core tasks of governmental organisations The key government departments examined are the Inland Revenue Service and Social Security Administration in the US the Inland Revenue and Benefits Agency in the UK European Public Administration & Informatization , Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes kapitelvis Governing Networks Ari Salminen, 2003 Annotation The EGPA Yearbook provides an overall view of current scientific discussion concerning networks particularly the governing of networks in European public administration More than 30 presentations by researchers and practitioners of public administration in different European countries guarantee that the wide range of topics related to network governance information technology and also to other special issues of administrative and managerial reforms related to the subject is fully covered The Yearbook deals with two main topics centred on governing and developing networks In the first part issues are related to different interpretations of networks involved in social policy reforms administration citizen relationships reforming governance models public private relations also including health care local governance and professional policy networks In the second part networks are discussed from the perspective of information technology Among several presentations the authors analyse challenges and applications of new technology in public administration ICT networks in social networks and also reforms and improvements of new technology The accent is on how IT is bringing new patterns into the public administration of different countries The Yearbook demonstrates that a discussion of networks is a rather new and fresh way of thinking about the role of public sector authorities in society reforms of hierarchical structures in public agencies and e governance applications at all levels of government Orwell in Athens Wim B. H. J. van de Donk, I. Th. M. Snellen, P. W. Tops, 1995 Informatization is playing an increasingly important role in democratic politics For some time already various applications of Information and Communication Technologies ICT are more or less successfully used by politicians representative bodies political parties and citizens It is however reasonable to believe that informatization will be of paramount interest for existing actors and institutions that are involved in public decision making in a democracy The advent of telecommunication infrastructures that will enable the use of all kinds of interactive facilities is considered to be an important step towards a more participative democratic system Many projects that share a common feature have been set up their ambition to renew democratic decision making structures and practises with the help of ICT Most of these projects can be found at the level of local and or regional government In this book the claim that these projects can reform or strengthen democratic politics is explored and discussed both empirically and theoretically The research that is presented in this book makes clear that as far as the role of informatization regarding the functioning of the democratic polity is concerned it appears that informatization represents both opportunities and threats
