Evaluation For School Development:

Evaluation for School Development David Hopkins,1989 Teachers and other educationalists are increasingly expected to carry out evaluations of new initiatives David Hopkins provides a guide to evaluations the primary focus of which is on practice

School Development ,1986

Teaching and Targets John Blanchard,2016-12-07 Teachers school managers and governors are now more publicly accountable than ever They are expected to know how their school is performing and how to improve that performance Target setting is a key tool in the drive to raise standards and has been implemented at every level of the education system This book explores target setting from both the teacher s and pupil s viewpoint and investigates the role of assessment in successful teaching and learning It shows that it is possible to develop a whole school target setting policy co ordinating the use of targets for individual pupils subject specific departments and teams and whole school improvement plans In this way targets can be used positively for the benefit of pupils teachers and managers This book will be important reading for headteachers senior management teams assessment co ordinators and subject leaders in schools and will also be of interest to governors and LEA advisors

Middle School/junior High School Evaluative Criteria

National Study of School Evaluation,1979 This book is the result of a major effort by the National Study of School Evaluation to develop and publish evaluative materials for middle schools and junior high schools The Manual describes the organization of the evaluation and provides directions for its use in the evaluative process Guidelines for conducting the self evaluation by individual schools and the evaluation by a visiting committee are presented with the full understanding that procedures may vary from state to state and region to region

OECD Reviews of Evaluation and Assessment in Education Synergies for Better Learning An International Perspective on Evaluation and Assessment OECD,2013-04-11 This report provides an international comparative analysis and policy advice to countries on how evaluation and assessment arrangements can be embedded within a consistent framework to improve the quality equity and efficiency of school education

School-based Evaluation David Nevo,2002-09-04 Divided into two parts this volume first discusses the concept of school based evaluation followed by a presentation of case studies of school evaluation from across the world In part one school based evaluation is examined from three perspectives school based evaluation as a dialogue between internal and external evaluation school evaluation from a perspective of institutional self evaluation in a democracy and issues of definition methods and implementation The second part of the book presents case studies from Norway England The Netherlands Austria Spain United States Canada Israel Scotland and Germany All of the case studies are based on actual experience with school based evaluation in various educational and social contexts Authors recognise the wide range of local constraints and reflect upon multiple evaluation perspectives describing their educational context evaluation perspective and specific school based experience They highlight difficulties encountered in their work discuss the implications and make recommendations for further development of the concept of school based evaluation and its practice

School Based Evaluation An International

Perspective does not suggest internal self school evaluation as an alternative to external objective evaluation However an attempt is made to advocate the combination of both for the benefit of school accountability and school improvement
