Evening Meal:

Handbook of Behavior, Food and Nutrition Victor R. Preedy, Ronald Ross Watson, Colin R. Martin, 2011-04-15 This book disseminates current information pertaining to the modulatory effects of foods and other food substances on behavior and neurological pathways and importantly vice versa This ranges from the neuroendocrine control of eating to the effects of life threatening disease on eating behavior The importance of this contribution to the scientific literature lies in the fact that food and eating are an essential component of cultural heritage but the effects of perturbations in the food cognitive axis can be profound The complex interrelationship between neuropsychological processing diet and behavioral outcome is explored within the context of the most contemporary psychobiological research in the area This comprehensive psychobiology and pathology themed text examines the broad spectrum of diet behavioral and neuropsychological interactions from normative function to occurrences of severe and enduring psychopathological processes

Food, Families and Work Rebecca O'Connell, Julia Brannen, 2016-03-24 With dual working households now the norm Food Families and Work is the first comprehensive study to explore how families negotiate everyday food practices in the context of paid employment As the working hours of British parents are among the highest in Europe the United Kingdom provides a key case study for investigating the relationship between parental employment and family food practices Focusing on issues such as the gender division of foodwork the impact of family income on diet family meals and the power children wield over the food they eat the book offers a longitudinal view of family routines It explores how the everyday meanings of food change as children grow older and negotiate changes in their own lives and those of their family members Drawing on extensive quantitative data from large scale surveys of food and diet as well as qualitative evidence to emphasise the larger global context of social and economic change and shifting patterns of family life Rebecca O Connell and Julia Brannen present a holistic overview of food practices within busy contemporary family lives Featuring perspectives from both parents and children this innovative approach to some of the most hotly debated topics in food studies is a must read for students and scholars in food studies sociology anthropology nutrition and public health
