Evergreen Review 7:

Beckett Matters S.E. Gontarski, 2016-10-27 Representing a profound engagement with the work of Samuel Beckett this volume gathers the very best of Stan Gontarski's Beckett criticism on practical theoretical and critical levels Such a range suggests a multiplicity of approaches to a body of work itself multiple produced by an artist who underwent any number of transformations and reinventions over his long writing career a Many of the essays collected here explore Beckett's debt to his age Beckett very much a product of a culture in transition which change he would help foster But much of Beckett's creative struggle was to find a new way his own way a Most of the essays that comprise this volume detail that struggle toward a way we now call Beckettian The Beats Nancy Grace, 2021-03-11 This survey of the many little magazines carrying the Beat message is impressive in its coverage drawing attention to the importance of their paratextual content in providing valuable socio-political context The collection contains a range of insightful close readings astute contextualizing and inventive lateral pedagogical thinking charting the transformation of the Beat scene from its free-wheeling self-help heady revolutionary 1960s days to its contemporary position as an increasingly respectable component of the curriculum The Beats A Teaching Companion is successful on a number of levels it is a noteworthy contribution to the ever-expanding field of Beat studies and more broadly cultural studies and it is a collection that at its best gives hope that in referring to its ideas the inspired teacher may still be able to enlarge the lives of their students John Shapcott Keele University

AB Bookman's Weekly, 1993 The Beats Ann Charters, 1983 Bulletin of Bibliography, 1988 These six plays span nearly twenty years of theatre and display the range of Lillian Hellman's dramatic gifts The Children's Hour 1934 her first play was considered shocking at the time it concerns the devastating effects of a child's malicious charge of lesbianism against two of her teachers Days to Come 1936 is about the tragic consequences of strike breaking in a small Midwestern community The Little Foxes 1939 and Another Part of the Forest 1946 together constitute a chilling study of the financial and psychological conflicts within the Hubbards a wealthy and rapacious Southern family Watch on the Rhine 1941 the story of
