Forging Identities:

Forging Identities Zoya Hasan,1994 In the Indian context Forging Identities Zoya Hasan,2019-03-11 This volume challenges the assumption that Muslims in India constitute a homogeneous community Focusing specifically on gender issues the contributors instead locate the Muslim womens community within the social economic and political developments that have taken place in the subcontinent pre and post Independence in order to examine how the Forging Identities in the Prehistory of Old Europe J. Chapman,2020 Balkan prehistory conjures up images of the Exotic and the Other in comparison with the better known prehistory of Western Europe often written in unfamiliar languages about lesser known places Combined with the information revolution in archaeology these factors have meant that no new synthesis of Old Europe has been written in the last 20 years This has left a backlog of rich settlement data and object rich landscapes which have rarely been presented in Forging Identities Zoya Hasan,1996 Concepts of Culture Adam Muller,2005 How do we define culture In this volume Adam Muller brings together contributions from established and emerging scholars in a number of different disciplines who each examine the concept of culture as it is understood and deployed within their respective fields

Sex and Social Justice Martha C. Nussbaum,2000-08-24 Growing out of Nussbaum s years of work with an international development agency connected with the United Nations and informed by her study of Aristotle and the Stoics and the modern liberal thinkers Kant and Mill this collection charts a feminism that is deeply concerned with the urgent needs of women who live in hunger and illiteracy or under unequal legal systems Sex and Social Justice will interest a wide readership because of the public importance of the topics Nussbaum addresses and the generous insight she shows in dealing with these issues These essays offer incisive reflections by one of our most important living philosophers Gender and Community Vrinda Narain,2001-01-01 These issues are significant not only for Muslim women in India but also in the broader context of the accommodation of cultural diversity in pluralist democracies BOOK JACKET Forging Identities Paulina Suchowska-Ducke,Samantha Scott Reiter,Helle Vandkilde,2015 With a strong emphasis on data the two volumes of this book demonstrate that mobility was essential to the European Bronze Age by exploring the shared cultural expression of Bronze Age societies in contrast to their simultaneous development of new local and regional characteristics During this seminal poque cultural and social formations of an entirely new kind and magnitude came to characterize Europe The intense and dynamic relations between local and large scale change processes coincided with increased mobility in different domains and forms forging new identities and shaping the emergence of Europe as a distinct cultural zone Through over fifty essays by leading Bronze Age scholars the reader engages with cultural mobility and connectivity and the ways in which these forces affected and transformed human behaviour Seminar ,2001 Forging Southeastern Identities Gregory A. Waselkov,Marvin T. Smith,2017-03-31 Forging Southeastern Identities explores the many ways archaeologists and ethnohistorians define and trace the origins of Native Americans collective social identity "A Dream of Stone" Michael D.

Garval,2004 With democratization of fame in the wake of the French Revolution writers enjoyed ever greater celebrity status But in nineteenth century France the availability and perceived impermanence of such renown cheapened it and prompted longing for enduring fame exemplified by monuments commemorative sculptural or architectural works helping a nation in flux define itself its past and anticipated future Within this cultural climate there evolved an ideal of great writers and their work as immortal that envisioned literary greatness through the metaphor of monuments and monumentality study draws upon wide ranging evidence from journalism to poetry caricature to statuary Focusing on the lives work and fame of Honore de Balzac George Sand and Victor Hugo it uncovers the salient features and traces the rise and fall of this monumentalizing vision of literary greatness largely forgotten today yet so central to nineteenth century French culture North Carolina State University Forging Identities Zoya Hasan,1994-09-20 This volume challenges the assumption that Muslims in India constitute a homogeneous community Focusing specifically on gender issues the contributors instead locate the Muslim women s community wit Gender, Taste, and Material Culture in Britain and North America, 1700-1830 John Styles,Amanda Vickery,2006 Between 1700 and 1830 men and women in the English speaking territories framing the Atlantic gained unprecedented access to material things The British Atlantic was an empire of goods held together not just by political authority and a common language but by a shared material culture nourished by constant flows of commodities Diets expanded to include exotic luxuries such as tea and sugar the fruits of mercantile and colonial expansion Homes were furnished with novel goods like clocks and earthenware teapots the products of British industrial ingenuity This groundbreaking book compares these developments in Britain and North America bringing together a multi disciplinary group of scholars to consider basic questions about women men and objects in these regions In asking who did the shopping how things were used and why they became the subject of political dispute the essays show the profound significance of everyday objects in the eighteenth century Atlantic world Nature's Altars Susan R. Schrepfer,2005 Book Review Research EU. ,2012-06 Forging Identities in the Irish World Sophie Cooper,2022-02-28 Presents the experiences of two burgeoning cities and the Irish people that helped to establish what it is to be Irish within them Islamic Contestations Barbara Daly Metcalf,2004 The essays in this volume written over the course of the last quarter century are intended to contribute to understanding the role that Islamic symbols and identities have come to play in Northern India and since 1947 in Pakistan Above all these essays offer a challenge to current negative stereotypes of the Muslim faith demonstrating that the religion is not characterised by political militancy nor dominated by static traditionalism Forging Identities: Economic and political foundations of interaction and mobility Paulina Suchowska-Ducke,Samantha Scott Reiter,Helle Vandkilde,2015 With a strong emphasis on data the two volumes of this book demonstrate that mobility was essential to the European Bronze Age by exploring the shared cultural expression of Bronze Age societies in contrast to their simultaneous development of new local and regional characteristics During this seminal poque cultural and social formations of an entirely new kind and magnitude came to characterize Europe. The intense and dynamic relations between local and large scale change processes coincided with increased mobility in different domains and forms forging new identities and shaping the emergence of Europe as a distinct cultural zone. Through over fifty essays by leading Bronze Age scholars the reader engages with cultural mobility and connectivity and the ways in which these forces affected and transformed human behaviour.

Immigration and Asylum Matthew J. Gibney, Randall Hansen, 2005-06-21 A comprehensive and timely examination of the history and current status of immigrants and refugees their stories the events that led to their movement and the place of these movements in contemporary history and politics. Immigration and Asylum From 1900 to the Present is an accessible and up to date introduction to the key concepts terms personalities and real world issues associated with the surge of immigration from the beginning of the 20th century to the present. It focuses on the United States but is also the first encyclopedic work on the subject that reflects a truly global perspective. With contributions from the world's foremost authorities on the subject Immigration and Asylum offers nearly 200 entries organized around four themes immigration and asylum the major migrating groups around the world expulsions and other forced population movements and the politics of migration. In addition to basic entries the work includes in depth essays on important trends events and current conditions. There is no better resource for exploring just how profoundly the voluntary and forced movement of asylum seekers and refugees has transformed the world and what that transformation means to us today. Nearly 200 A-Z entries on immigration and asylum around the world. 150 contributors including leading immigration scholars from around the globe such as Nathan Glazer Saskia Sassen Ari Zolberg James Hollifield Desmond King and Stephen Castles. A separate volume of primary source documents including legislation treaties speeches and United Nations documents. A chronology of major movements of migrants and asylum seekers.
