interviewed more than forty CEOs from both industry and the nonprofit sector conducted an intensive study of what successful managers do right and what some do wrong and drew on their own combined fifty plus years of experience at Bain Company where their insights have consistently been found in the pages of the Harvard Business Review Together they came up with the four straightforward principles deceptively simple yet remarkably powerful that everyone must follow to succeed at achieving breakthrough results 1 Costs and prices always decline 2 Competitive position determines options 3 Customers and profit pools don't stand still 4 Simplicity gets results Although seemingly simplistic mastering these four laws means mastering the basics of great management a foundation on which to build the rest of one's management strategy Whether you're managing a small work group or a multinational corporation a single division or an entire nonprofit The Breakthrough Imperative presents these core laws of business to help you determine where you are just how far you can go and how to get there with stellar results
