Handbook Of Religious Conversion:

The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion Lewis R. Rambo, Charles E. Farhadian, 2014-03-06 The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion offers a comprehensive exploration of the dynamics of religious conversion which for centuries has profoundly shaped societies cultures and individuals throughout the world Scholars from a wide array of religions and disciplines interpret both the varieties of conversion experiences and the processes that inform this personal and communal phenomenon This volume examines the experiences of individuals and communities who change religions those who experience an intensification of their religion of origin and those who encounter new religions through colonial intrusion missionary work and charismatic and revitalization movements The thirty two innovative essays provide overviews of the history of particular religions including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Taoism Sikhism Islam Christianity Judaism indigenous religions and new religious movements The essays also offer a wide range of disciplinary perspectives psychological sociological anthropological legal political feminist and geographical on methods and theories deployed in understanding conversion and insight into various forms of deconversion Handbook of Religious Conversion H. Newton Malony, Samuel Southard, 1992 Handbook of Leaving Religion Daniel Enstedt, Göran Larsson, Teemu T.

Mantsinen, 2019-10-07 The Handbook of Leaving Religion introduces a neglected field of research with the aim to outline previous and contemporary research and suggest how the topic of leaving religion should be studied in the future The handbook consists of three sections 1 Major debates about leaving religion 2 Case studies and empirical insights and 3 Theoretical and methodological approaches Section one provides the reader with an introduction to key terms historical developments major controversies and significant cases Section two includes case studies that illustrate various processes of leaving religion from different perspectives and each chapter provides new empirical insights Section three discusses presents and encourages new approaches to the study of leaving religion The Good Quit Jeffrey A.

Lockwood, 2026-02-16 Quitting is a vital and pervasive phenomenon that shapes our lives The Good Quit is an enlightening and provocative challenge to the common perceptions around the choice to quit Rather than offering simplistic how to advice scientist turned philosopher Jeffrey A Lockwood makes full use of biological psychological and social sciences to unpack what constitutes quitting for the right reasons at the right time and in the right way using both fundamental principles and concrete examples He explores the full range of ways in which quitting can occur in the human experience including addictions careers diets games habits jobs politics relationships religions sports and wars Masterful quitting contributes to genuine success but this practice nevertheless has been largely overlooked by scholars teachers coaches and leaders This book is a three part exploration In conceptual terms it asks Is it really quitting if the decision is reversible involuntary or partial In normative terms it explores whether quitting must be well reasoned timed and enacted to be justifiable In applicable terms it emphasizes phronesis or practical wisdom and contributes to the understanding that what constitutes quitting and doing so well is vital to making decisions about whether to persevere or abandon difficult ventures Flourishing is more complex than grit or quit advocates suggest To thrive we must come to know why when and how to quit The Good Quit approaches this topic from an expansive and philosophical point of view making it valuable for anyone contemplating the what when why and how of quitting Atheists Finding God Jana S. Harmon, 2023-02-28 In a Western culture of increasing skepticism towards conservative Christianity what motivates intellectually driven atheists to believe in the reality of God and become passionate followers of Christ Review of social science literature confirms a predominant functional approach to religious conversion effectively reducing a complex substantive phenomenon to a partial functional explanation In response the chief focus of this book is to take a broader look at religious conversion to determine the precursors and pathways from atheistic disbelief to belief in God and Christianity within an educated population Findings are drawn from PhD based research evaluating a broad range of functional and substantive variables influencing religious conversion Data was collected through both survey and interview of fifty educated skeptical atheists in the contemporary West who once held belief God and Christianity as implausible unattractive and irrelevant Yet they became utterly convinced that the Christian faith was true and good worth personal life commitment These former atheists not only experienced a change of their worldview but also a dramatic transformation of their whole world In depth narrative analysis revealed the integrated transformative nature of religious conversion in areas of sense making identity experience meaning and purpose community language and spirituality Overall this book advances the case for using an inclusive transformational perspective in future description conception and modeling for religious conversion of atheists to conservative forms of Christianity Moving In and Out of Islam Karin van Nieuwkerk, 2018-12-05 Embracing a new religion or leaving one's faith usually constitutes a significant milestone in a person's life While a number of scholars have examined the reasons why people convert to Islam few have investigated why people leave the faith and what the consequences are for doing so Taking a holistic approach to conversion and deconversion Moving In and Out of Islam explores the experiences of people who have come into the faith along with those who have chosen to leave it including some individuals who have both moved into and out of Islam over the course of their lives Sixteen empirical case studies trace the processes of moving in or out of Islam in Western and Central Europe the United States Canada and the Middle East Going beyond fixed notions of conversion or apostasy the contributors focus on the ambiguity doubts and nonlinear trajectories of both moving in and out of Islam They show how people shifting in either direction have to learn or unlearn habits and change their styles of clothing dietary restrictions and ways of interacting with their communities They also look at how communities react to both converts to the religion and converts out of it including controversies over the death penalty for apostates The contributors cover the political aspects of conversion as well including debates on radicalization in the era of the war on terror and the role of moderate Islam in conversions A Complete Handbook of Religious Pictures William Walter Smith, 1905 The Psychology of Religion Ralph W.
