Scripts Olaf Berggren, 2002 Handbook of Literacy in Africa R. Malatesha Joshi, Catherine A. McBride, Bestern Kaani, Gad Elbeheri, 2023-07-28 This volume highlights the shortcomings concerning literacy development in Africa and collates the current available literature based on empirical research in various countries in a coherent manner Further emphasized is how the current research can guide practical information to improve the literacy situation in Africa The research studies will encompass various fields such as linguistics neurosciences and education and will provide future research directions and instructional recommendations to improve the literacy situation in Africa Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Generalia, language and literature, the arts Albert John Walford, 1998 From its first edition the purpose of Walford has been to identify and evaluate the widest possible range of reference materials. No rigid definition of reference is applied. In addition to the expected bibliographies, indexes, dictionaries, encyclopaedias, and directories, a number of important textbooks and manuals of general practice are included. While the majority of the items are books, Walford is a guide to reference material. Thus, periodical articles, microforms, online, and CD-ROM sources are all represented. In this volume, a particular effort has been made to improve coverage of the latter two categories.

The Cambridge Handbook of Literacy David R. Olson, Nancy Torrance, 2009-02-09 This handbook marks the transformation of the topic of literacy from the narrower concerns with learning to read and write to an interdisciplinary enquiry into the various roles of writing and reading in the full range of social and psychological functions in both modern and developing societies. It does so by exploring the nature and development of writing systems, the relations between speech and writing, the history of the social uses of writing, the evolution of conventions of reading, the social and developmental dimensions of acquiring literate competencies, and more generally the conceptual and cognitive dimensions of literacy as a set of social practices. Contributors to the volume are leading scholars drawn from such disciplines as linguistics, literature, history, anthropology, psychology, the neurosciences, cultural psychology, and education.

Handbook of Comparative and Historical Indo-European Linguistics Jared Klein, Brian Joseph, Matthias Fritz, 2017-09-25 This book presents the most comprehensive coverage of the field of Indo-European Linguistics in a century, focusing on the entire Indo-European family and treating each major branch and most minor languages. The collaborative work of 120 scholars from 22 countries, Handbook of Comparative and Historical Indo-European Linguistics combines the exhaustive coverage of an encyclopedia with the in-depth treatment of individual monographic studies.

Script and Society Philip J. Boyes, 2021-03-15 By the 13th century BC, the Syrian city of Ugarit hosted an extremely diverse range of writing practices. As well as two main scripts, alphabetic and logographic, cuneiform, the site has also produced inscriptions in a wide range of scripts and languages, including Hurrian, Sumerian, Hittite, Egyptian hieroglyphs, Luwian hieroglyphs, and Cypriot Minoan. This variety in script and language is accompanied by writing practices that blend influences from Mesopotamian, Anatolian, and Levantine traditions together with what seem to be distinctive local innovations.

Script and Society: The Social Context of Writing Practices in Late Bronze Age Ugarit explores the social and cultural context of these complex writing traditions from the perspective of writing as a social practice. It combines archaeology, epigraphy, history, and anthropology to present a highly interdisciplinary exploration of social questions relating to writing at the site, including matters of gender, ethnicity, status, and other forms of identity, the relationship between writing and place, and the complex relationships between inscribed and unscripted objects. This forms a case study for a wider discussion of interdisciplinary approaches to the study of writing practices in the ancient world.
