Handel A First

Thomas Forrest Kelly

Handel A First:

Handel Donald Burrows, 1991-06-24 This new guide to Handel's most celebrated work traces the course of Messiah from Handel's initial musical response to the libretto through the oratorio's turbulent first years to its eventual popularity with the Foundling Hospital performances. Different chapters consider the varying reception the work received in Dublin and London, the uneasy relationship between the composer and his librettist Charles Jennens and the many changes Messiah underwent through the varying needs and capacities of Handel's performers. As well as tracing the history of the work's development, the book addresses musical and technical issues such as Messiah's place in the oratorio genre, Handel's treatment of structural design, tonal relationships and English word setting. An edited libretto elucidates the variants between the text that Handel set and the texts of the early printed word books. Donald Burrows brings many new insights to this fascinating account of one of the favourite works of the concert hall. First Nights at the Opera Thomas Forrest Kelly, 2006-05-01 A renowned music scholar narrates the social history of European opera during its golden age in the 18th and 19th centuries by taking readers behind the scenes at the premiere performances of five extraordinary and influential operas. 88 illustrations. Every Saturday, 1868. The Monthly Musical Record, 1874. Handel -- First Book for Pianists George Lucktenberg, 1977-06 Selected from Handel's attractive teaching pieces, this volume contains a wide variety of dances, several sonatas, a suite for a musical clock and several titled pieces. Lucktenberg's edition includes suggestions for tempi, fingering, dynamics and phrasing. Ornaments are realized and a brief biography of the composer is provided. The collection is an excellent choice for exposing early intermediate students to this often overlooked Baroque keyboard composer. Catechism of Musical History Hugo Riemann, 1892. New Perspectives on Handel's Music David Vickers, 2022 Much like a baroque dramma per musica, this book is divided into three parts. Part I introduces the principal characters, Handel's musical works in different genres and diverse aspects of his musical style and creative practices. Part II develops complications to the plot; there is new information about the authenticity and chronology of works and analysis of musical, literary and documentary sources. Part III brings all of these scholarly strands together and leads to a set of outcomes: a fresh examination of the broader context of Handel's music in relation to his contemporaries and collaborators sits alongside reception studies. This collection will be essential reading for baroque music admirers, performers, experts and students. David Vickers is Lecturer in Academic Studies at Royal Northern College of Music, Manchester and Council Member of the Handel Institute. History of Music Cecil Forsyth, 1921. Music Lovers' Encyclopedia Rupert Hughes, 1919. The Musical Guide Rupert Hughes, 1903. The musical guide, ed. by R. Hughes, Rupert Hughes, 1903. Nelson's Encyclopaedia, 1907. Strand Musical Magazine, 1897. What We Hear in Music Anne Shaw Faulkner, 1913. Progressive Series History of Music Cecil Forsyth, 1923. The Musical Antiquary, 1910. Western Weekly Reports, 1917. The Athenaeum, 1888. Catalogues of Sales Sotheby & Co. (London, England), 1922. Missouri School Journal, 1916.
