Improving Teaching, Learning, Equity, and Success in Gateway Courses Andrew K. Koch, 2018-01-22 As long as there have been U S colleges and universities there have been entry courses that pose difficulties for students courses that have served more as weeding out rather than gearing up experiences for undergraduates This volume makes the case that the weed out dynamic is no longer acceptable if it ever was Contemporary postsecondary education is characterized by vastly expanded access for historically underserved populations of students and this new level of access is coupled with increased scrutiny of retention and graduation outcomes Chapters in this volume define and explore issues in gateway courses and provide various examples of how to improve teaching learning and outcomes in these foundational components of the undergraduate experience This is the 180th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Higher Education Addressed to presidents vice presidents deans and other higher education decision makers on all kinds of campuses it provides timely information and authoritative advice about major issues and administrative problems confronting every institution Supervision for Today's Schools George E. Pawlas, Peter F. Oliva, 2012-10-16 Specifically designed for the introductory course this text provides an overview of the field of instructional supervision Acquaints students with not only the authors views on supervision but with those of other specialists in the field placing heavy emphasis on practice and the supervisor s responsibilities as an instructional leader Continues to stress that the relationship between the supervisor and teacher is built on trust and that the overall goal is to improve student achievement through better instruction Resources in Education ,1997 Improving Teaching-learning Processes Ray Hamill Simpson, 1953 Approaches to Research on the Improvement of Postsecondary Teaching and Learning Patricia J.
