Gender Issues In Contemporary Society:

Gender Issues in Contemporary Society Stuart Oskamp, Mark Costanzo, 1993-05-17 During the past two decades the study of how gender influences social life has moved from the outskirts to the centre of psychology. Some of psychology's most cherished assumptions have been challenged and feminist scholars proposed alternative views of human development, research methods, cognitive functioning, family life, and communication. These challenges have invigorated many areas of psychology. Distinctive in its emphasis on applied issues that have practical importance in the lives of women and men, this volume presents current knowledge about key gender issues and sheds light on problems and controversies. Specific issues explored include gender differences in emotion, desire for control, attitudes towards leader.

Women in the Contemporary Society Thokchom Binarani Devi, 2017-01-01 The present book is a comprehensive document which sincerely attempts at not only the present position and status of women and improving their place in the society as an active contributor towards economically viable projects but also as an integral force in propelling the workforce of rural less privileged women to the forefront of our economy to an acceptable and respected place in the social and political structure of the country. It also describes about women as individuals of an independent India in general and particularly women of the backward and under developed States like Manipur with an ever increasing sense of dignity and self worth which will spur them or to contribute within an ever increasing ambience of diligence and economic viability and ongoing political processes. Many social stigmas are heaped upon women for no fault of their own only violent action towards them and injustice. Then again denial of property rights, lower wages, violence in civil life, gender discrimination etc are some of the notable social diseases that are exhibiting in this modern developing societies.

Mind the Backlash: Gender Discrimination and Sexism in Contemporary Societies Hilde Coffe, Susan Banducci, Marta Fraile, Jessica Fortin-Rittberger, Amy Alexander, 2023-09-26 Decades of campaigns and policy efforts have brought significant progress in women's economic and political status and pushed gender equality up the global policy agenda. The goal of gender equality however still remains largely out of reach as illustrated by the recent wave of women's protests against sexual harassment, assault, and gender violence, e.g. MeToo movement. Some European countries, e.g. Poland, Hungary, and Lithuania have even seen their performance on gender equality backslide in recent years and in parallel to calls for increased equality, a wave of mobilisation against gender equality has appeared in the public discourse. Conservative, authoritarian, and populist voices in many democracies are now contesting the equal participation of men and women in society under the auspices of a war on gender ideology. This backlash against women's empowerment carries considerable implications for anti-discrimination laws, policies protecting women against domestic violence, reproductive health, and the establishment of gender quotas. Given the backlash against gender observed in various countries around the globe, we argue that now is a critical time to revisit and broaden our knowledge about gender discrimination, gender equality, and sexism. Our proposed Research Topic will provide a gender perspective to illustrate and understand the recent illiberal turn in politics in a variety of contexts Taking a comparative approach we aim at improving our understanding of how sexism discrimination and gender equality operate at the societal level and how they shape broader social and political views At the individual level we will study the current seemingly opposing forces for and against gender equality by analysing the antecedents predispositions experiences and motivations explaining and underpinning these attitudes towards different ways of gender equality sexism and discrimination

Designing and Implementing Public Policy in Contemporary Society Justyna Nyćkowiak,Lilla Młodzik,2026-01-19 The debate in Europe centers on labor market development shared responsibility for demographic changes and preparing for their impact Building a lifelong learning system is essential from this perspective Education is key to integration across Europe fostering trust and cooperation The EU is founded on values fundamental to education and culture supporting programs that promote shared EU ideals Educational efforts highlight universalism and humanism as core principles of civilization and recognize the importance of international organizations in ensuring inclusive education Enhancing civic education can improve understanding of democratic processes and encourage active societal participation Implementing modern education policies requires changes in both teaching methods and content including adopting innovative techniques and developing digital skills

Gender Equality from a Modern Perspective Tanusree Chakraborty,Nandita Mishra,Ashok Natarajan,Bipasha Chatterjee,2023-10-20 Attempts to eliminate or reduce gender inequality have been made by governments international organizations NGOs policymakers and private organizations However the evidence still shows that the gender gap exists from womb to tomb from parental treatment to corporate leadership and even the genders psychologically different identity for that matter The question however arises with laws and regulations formed on gender disparity bills becoming acts society becoming broader in their outlook and adopting inclusivity in terms of gender in different spheres Are we still able to claim that we are addressing gender inequality enough This volume explores the disparity between genders in terms of the labor market and career advancement child rearing practices education financial literacy work life balance pay gaps and economic development to name a few areas It focuses on the robust themes of the gender gap from a modern perspective to enhance our understanding of gender inequality in today s world

Modern Judaism Nicholas Robert Michael De Lange,Miri Freud-Kandel,2005 This collection of newly commissioned essays covers the major areas of thought in contemporary Jewish studies including considerations of religious differences sociological philosophical and gender issues geographical diversity and inter faith relations

Gender Issues in Government and Management Tryma, Kateryna,Alaverdov, Emilia,Bari, Muhammad Waseem,2024-08-29 With the new challenges in globalization the role of women in contemporary politics economics and management practices remains pressing Women in leadership now serve as role models contributing to the political and economic development of their countries while furthering gender equality in businesses organizations and governments Ensuring gender equality remains pivotal to sustainable development and economic growth Gender Issues in

Government and Management explores the positive impacts of gender equality on modern society enhancing our understanding of how gender issues affect politics economics and social inequality By examining the current issues and challenges in gender this book poses solutions for socio economic improvement This book covers topics such as gender and diversity political science and international relations and is a valuable resource for government officials politicians sociologists economists students and educators of higher education researchers and academicians
