James Joseph Walsh

Generation Sex:

Living Kinship in the Pacific Christina Toren, Simonne Pauwels, 2015-04-01 Unaisi Nabobo Baba observed that for the various peoples of the Pacific kinship is generally understood as knowledge that counts. It is with this observation that this volume begins and it continues with a straightforward objective to provide case studies of Pacific kinship. In doing so contributors share an understanding of kinship as a lived and living dimension of contemporary human lives in an area where deep historical links provide for close and useful comparison. The ethnographic focus is on transformation and continuity over time in Fiji, Tonga, and Samoa, with the addition of three instructive cases from Tokelau, Papua New Guinea, and Taiwan. The book ends with an account of how kinship is constituted in day to day ritual and ritualized behavior. Componential

Analysis of Kinship Terminology V. Pericliev, 2013-07-26 This book presents the first computer program automating the task of componential analysis of kinship vocabularies. The book examines the program in relation to two basic problems: the commonly occurring inconsistency of componential models and the huge number of alternative componential models.
