Goodbye To Budapest:

Goodbye to Budapest Margarita Morris,2019 Hungarians live in fear of the dreaded Secret Police A student led demonstration soon turns into a bloody battle to overthrow the hated communist regime People fight with Molotov cocktails bravery and cunning They fight for freedom They fight to survive A panoramic novel of courage sacrifice and the indomitable human quest for freedom National History and New Nationalism in the Twenty-First Century Niels F. May,Thomas Maissen,2021-06-17 National history has once again become a battlefield In internal political conflicts which are fought on the terrain of popular culture museums schoolbooks and memorial politics it has taken on a newly important and contested role Irrespective of national specifics the narratives of new nationalism are quite similar everywhere National history is said to stretch back many centuries expressing the historical continuity of a homogeneous people and its timeless character This people struggles for independence guided by towering leaders and inspired by the sacrifice of martyrs Unlike earlier forms of nationalism the main enemies are no longer neighbouring states but international and supranational institutions To use national history as an integrative tool new nationalists claim that the media and school history curricula should not contest or question the nation and its great historical deeds as doubts threaten to weaken and dishonour the nation This book offers a broad international overview of the rhetoric contents and contexts of the rise of these renewed national historical narratives and of how professional historians have reacted to these phenomena The contributions focus on a wide range of representative nations from around all over the globe Something about the Author Gerard J.
