Essential But Expendable:

Wings of Gold Beverly Weintraub, 2021-12-15 On Feb 2 2019 the skies over Maynardville Tennessee filled with the roar of four F A 18F Super Hornets streaking overhead in close formation In each aircraft were two young female flyers executing the first all woman Missing Man Formation flyover in Navy history in memory of Captain Rosemary Mariner groundbreaking Navy jet pilot inspiring commander determined and dedicated leader whose drive to ensure the United States military had its choice of the best America had to offer both men and women broke down barriers and opened doors for female aviators wanting to serve their country Selected for Navy flight training as an experiment in 1972 Mariner and her five fellow graduates from the inaugural group of female Naval Aviators racked up an impressive roster of achievements and firsts first woman to fly a tactical jet aircraft first woman to command an aviation squadron first female Hurricane Hunter first pregnant Navy pilot plaintiff in a federal lawsuit that overturned limits on women s ability to fulfill their military duty Leading by example and by confrontation when necessary they challenged deep skepticism within the fleet and blazed a trail for female aviators wanting to serve their country equally with their male counterparts This is the story of their struggles and triumphs as they earned their Wings of Gold learned to fly increasingly sophisticated jet fighters and helicopters mastered aircraft carrier landings served at sea and reached heights of command that would have been unthinkable less than a generation before And it is the story of the legacy they left behind one for which the women performing the Navy s first Missing Woman Flyover in Mariner s memory owe a debt of gratitude The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook on Workplace Diversity and Stratification Tsedale M. Melaku, Angie Beeman, Christoph Winkler, 2023-11-01 Organizations and institutions use diversity and inclusion mantras to signal opportunity and access for all However the real world results are often underwhelming and people are demanding that organizations recognize the value that diversity brings to a workplace and be held accountable to the diversity and inclusion mission statements on their websites The Rowman Littlefield Handbook on Workplace Diversity and Stratification provides a comprehensive yet concise overview of important issues themes and research regarding workplace diversity and stratification The book analyzes present day and future implications of diversity in the workplace and offers concrete ways of developing policies and practices that will make diversity an intrinsic part of any organizational culture Taking an interdisciplinary approach the book covers topics including racism sexism socio economic status LGBTQ workers education intersectionality neurodiversity religion and allyship Practical contemporary and relevant this is an excellent resource for anyone interested in understanding what workplace diversity and stratification mean for everyday people institutions and society as a whole Beyond the Virus Sabrina Germain, Adrienne Yong, 2024-03-12 Stark social inequalities have been revealed and exacerbated by the COVID 19 pandemic This book explores these inequalities through three thematic strands power and governance gender and marginalized communities Feeding Each Other Michelle Auerbach, Nicole Civita, 2023-04-28 The global food system is sick and almost everyone knows it But this bold big hearted book doesn't stop at diagnosing the problem though it does that incisively and with style. If a just more joyous future is possible it begins with the ideas in this book. Joe Fassler, food and environmental journalist and author of Light the Dark Food does much more than fuel our bodies. Food helps us express care, create culture and connect. But while food today might feed some of us, the growing, producing, packaging and distributing is also killing us. Trying to feed the world is accelerating the collapse of environmental, economic and social structures. The current solutions aren't working. By blending research insights from diverse thinkers and lived experience, food systems educator Nicole Civita and story justice activist Michelle Auerbach make sense of sustenance. They demonstrate that our lives depend on the relationships we make with and through food and make the case for a much needed cultural shift in the way we approach food.

Transnational Employment Strain in a Global Health Pandemic Leah F. Vosko, Tanya Basok, Cynthia Spring, 2023-01-01. The 2020-22 COVID-19 pandemic reinforced inequalities between the global North and South, amplifying pre-existing disparities between migrant and citizen permanent resident workers in receiving and sending states worldwide. In contexts such as Canada, it also underscored that many workers in occupations and sectors deemed essential enough to be exempt from stay-at-home orders and other public safety measures are migrants, a sizeable number of whom sustain Canada's food supply through their work in its agricultural industry. This book explores the dynamics behind the pandemic's deleterious outcomes for this vital group of workers, highlighting migrant farmworkers' importance to the Canadian economy, society and the world of work alongside the conditions they endured before and during the global health pandemic through policy and media analysis and open-ended interviews with workers enrolled in two streams of Canada's Temporary Foreign Worker Program (TFWP) as well as migrants without legal status employed in agriculture located in Ontario and Quebec. Advancing the notion of transnational employment strain, the authors derive insight from the employment strain model, a framework for understanding risks to the physical and psychological well-being of workers, and expand it to account for migrants' relationships across transnational space.

Co-partnership, 1960. Classical and Modern Greece Antony Selwyn, 1980. The Impossible Victory Brian Harpur, 1981. The battle for the River Po in April 1945 was not just the climactic battle of the Italian campaign. It brought about the first major surrender of German forces to the Western Allies during the Second World War, nearly a million enemy troops laid down their arms.

Animals on the Agenda Andrew Linzey, Dorothy Yamamoto, 1998. Are animals part of a fallen creation? Do animals have immortal souls? How does God value animals? Does Christ's reconciling work include animals? This encyclopaedic volume is the most comprehensive collection of original studies on animals and theology ever published.
