value impact portion of NRC regulatory analyses This PC program integrates the major cost and benefit considerations that may result from a proposed regulatory change FORECAST automates much of the calculations typically needed in a regulatory analysis and thus reduces the time and labor required to perform these analyses More importantly its integrated and consistent treatment of the different value impact considerations should help assure comprehensiveness uniformity and accuracy in the preparation of NRC regulatory analyses The Current FORECAST Version 4 1 has been upgraded from the previous version and now includes an uncertainty package an automatic cost escalation package and other improvements In addition it now explicitly addresses public health impacts occupational health impacts onsite property damage and government costs Thus FORECAST Version 4 1 can treat all attributes normally quantified in a regulatory analysis Profit
