The Taylor Mac Book David Roman,Sean Edgecomb,2023-02-13 This is the first book to dedicate critical attention to the work of influential theater maker Taylor Mac Mac is particularly celebrated for the historic performance event A 24 Decade History of Popular Music in which Mac in fantastical costumes designed by collaborator Machine Dazzle sang the history of the United States for 24 straight hours in October 2016 The MacArthur Foundation soon thereafter awarded their genius award to a writer director actor singer and performance artist whose fearlessly experimental works dramatize the power of theater as a space for building community and who interacts with the audience to inspire a reconsideration of assumptions about gender identity ethnicity and performance itself Featuring essays interviews and commentaries by noted critics and artists the volume examines the vastness of Mac s theatrical imagination the singularity of their voice the inclusiveness of their cultural insights and critiques and the creativity they display through stylistic and formal qualities and the unorthodoxies of their personal and professional trajectories Contributors consider the range of Mac s career as a playwright performer actor and singer expanding and enriching the conversation on this much celebrated and deeply resonant body of work

The Academy ,1910

The Ancient Greek Hero in 24 Hours Gregory Nagy,2013-07-15 The ancient Greeks concept of the hero was very different from what we understand by the term today

Gregory Nagy argues and it is only through analyzing their historical contexts that we can truly understand Achilles Odysseus Oedipus and Herakles In Greek tradition a hero was a human male or female of the remote past who was endowed with superhuman abilities by virtue of being descended from an immortal god Despite their mortality heroes like the gods were objects of cult worship Nagy examines this distinctively religious notion of the hero in its many dimensions in texts spanning the eighth to fourth centuries bce the Homeric Iliad and Odyssey tragedies of Aeschylus Sophocles and Euripides songs of Sappho and Pindar and dialogues of Plato All works are presented in English translation with attention to the subtleties of the original Greek and are often further illuminated by illustrations taken from Athenian vase paintings The fifth century bce historian Herodotus said that to read Homer is to be a civilized person In twenty four installments based on the Harvard University course Nagy has taught and refined since the late 1970s The Ancient Greek Hero in 24 Hours offers an exploration of civilization s roots in the Homeric epics and other Classical literature a lineage that continues to challenge and inspire us today

Nietzsche's Epic of the Soul T. K. Seung, 2005-06-14 Thus Spoke Zarathustra is Nietzsche s most problematic text There appears to be no thematic connection between its four Parts and numerous sections To make it even worse the book contains a number of thematic contradictions The standard approach has been a method of selective reading that is most critics select a few brilliant passages for edification and ignore the rest This approach has turned Nietzsche s text into a collection of disjointed fragments Going against this prevalent approach T K Seung presents the first unified reading of the whole book He reads it as the record of Zarathustra s epic journey to find spiritual values in the secular world The alleged thematic contradictions of the text are shown to indicate the turns and twists that are dictated by the hero s epic battle against his formidable opponent His heroic struggle is eventually resolved by the power of a pantheistic nature religion Thus Nietzsche s ostensibly atheistic work turns out to be a highly religious text The author uncovers this epic plot by reading Nietzsche s text as a baffling series of riddles and puzzles Hence his reading is not only edifying but also breathtaking In this unprecedented enterprise the author takes a complex interdisciplinary approach engaging the five disciplines of philosophy psychology religious studies literary analysis and cultural history
