Lim tops JC reelections CB rep vacancies filled

By Tony Ben Roman

Raulito Lim (3-85 BMS) edged fellow candidate Hubert Guevara (4-85 LMS), 1,366-1,360, for first place in the Judicial Council re-elections last August 12.

Just two long ago, an attempt to elect JC magnificates was kindled when actual voter turnout fell short by 16 votes. This was hardly the case in the last elections, as 1,957 students or 59.42% showed up to cast their votes, exceeding the maximum by 80 votes.

Close behind the leaders was Coco Alvarez (3-AB PhiA) with 1,256 votes. Fourth and fifth, respectively, were Ray Agnes (3-85 BMS) and Antonino Sison (3-85 BMS). 3-AB PhiA, who only joined the race after the failed JC elections. Filling in the last slot was Francis Gansal (4-AB ComA), who garnered 681 votes.

Lim cited his strong showing in the Students and Employees bodies, where he took 342 and 317 votes, respectively, and the prior year, which clipped in 331 votes, as responsible for his success. Reacting to the heavy turnout, he said that "the 59.42% is an encouraging turnout. Still, some students are apathetic. The results, though, were a good indication that some were aware."

For his part, Alvarez criticized the turnout to the students themselves. He said that "To a certain extent, the campaign made them [the students] aware that they had a situation to respond to."

Commenting on the other hand, he argued that while the heavy turnout was a healthy sign, it cannot by itself prove apathy. Moreover, he emphasized, "should show concern not only for personal issues but also small ones as well. They should always be critical."

Meanwhile, four senior Institute rep candidate Maño Busta (35 BMS) garnered 208 votes, as the senior Institute sector registered a 64.09% voter turnout. Busta's rep Kabanatan just as Kabanatan here also filled in the remaining slot in the freshmen year council. Last runner up was Mike Farnador (35 BMS) easily beat the freshmen year 100% voter turnout. Running mates Al Nev (3-AB ComA) and Mike Budha (3-AB Eng) emerged with 212 and 214 votes, respectively.

Winners of the JC elections were included into office by Chair Salazar of the Office of Student Affairs last August 23.

Judicial Council (JC) magnificates Ray Agnes (3-85 LMS) and Hubert Guevara (4-85 LMS) put to rest rumors that the freshman year council would be dissolved. Instead, following the discovery of glaring discrepancies between the original version of the Constitution and the typographical-error-infested Guidelines.

OSA Director Chino Salazar leads walk-taking drive for the Magistrates.

Anti-bases campaign continues

By Sandra Bernardino

Responding to an urgent need to educate Filipinos on the issue of the US military bases in the Philippines, the Ateneo launched an information drive through radio spots, newspaper articles and other media in the Philippines.

The first of a series of talks was sponsored by KALAYA and the Ateneo. The speakers included Fr. Benjamin B. Kelly, S.J., and Fr. Benjamin B. Kelly, S.J., who are both prominent anti-bases activists in the Philippines.

In his discussion, Fr. Benjamin B. Kelly emphasized the need for Filipinos to be vigilant against the American bases which threatened the Philippines' political, economic and social stability. The US bases, he said, are a clear violation of the pact and present help of American "occupation" within our of national interests. Fr. Benjamin stated that these American military bases are not only a threat to the Philippines, since they cannot be used by the government against subversive elements and the country's security is seriously jeopardized in any kind of Fr. Benjamin, however, emphasized that only organized US opposition in Philippine affairs, he said that the US bases are a threat to the Philippines' political, economic and social stability.

Kelly also expressed his concern for the removal of the US bases in the Philippines, drawing close parallels to the situation in Cuba. He stated that the US bases are a threat to the Philippines' political, economic and social stability, and that the removal of the US bases is a national interest of the Philippines.

Later Fr. Benjamin, Manila followed that theme in an evening talk with the Ateneo. He said that the US bases are a threat to the Philippines' political, economic and social stability.

Should the removal of the US bases be a national interest of the Philippines, Manila gave an annual alternative organized by the Philippine Chamber of Commerce (PCC) and the Ateneo. The speakers included Fr. Benjamin B. Kelly, S.J., and Fr. Benjamin B. Kelly, S.J., who are both prominent anti-bases activists in the Philippines.

According to the Ateneo, the main question is whether the continued presence of the US bases in the Philippines is in line with our national interest or not. The last

Ateneo hosts fiftieth Buklod Atenista Assembly

By Maria Bautista

The Ateneo de Manila will host the Buklod Atenista Fiftieth National Assembly from September 11 to 13 at the Bullock Center. From many delegations from such as the other Ateneo branches namely Xavier University (Ateneo de Cagayan), Ateneo de Naga, Ateneo de Zamboanga, and Ateneo de Davao are expected to attend the convocation. Representing the Ateneo de Manila are Bernie Marquez (CB President), Bong Bateman (EZPS), Karl Martinez (Junior Arts Rep.) and two others from the Freshmen and Sophomore Year Councils. Aside from the students, the Fr. Provincial, as well as the presidents of all the Ateneo Universities have been invited.

This year's National Assembly will address education-related local and national concerns. An analysis of the present educational system will also be made, to facilitate the creation of programs responsive to issues close to the Atenean such as the "Magna Carta of Students' Rights and the Institute for Research on the U.S. Base Issue" will also be made. The structure and program of Buklod will be re-evaluated, in hopes of increasing the Ateneo's participation in national activities.

The very promising Cultural Exchange Program will be of great importance to this year's National Assembly. The exchange between different Ateneo communities began last year, after the Fourth National Assembly, with the trading of products from different regions. At present, however, Buklod aims to expand the program to include cultural programs. [continued on page 2]

Central Board conducts study on Share-an-Education Program

By Baby Laktion

The Central Board (CB) is conducting a feasibility study on Share-an-Education Program (SAEP), formally known as the "socialized tuition fee scheme." SAEP is basically the subsidizing tuition fee of the lower income class by having the higher income class pay more.

Meanwhile, the University of the Philippines (UP) is also conducting a study on the same subject. UP students who belong to the P10,000-200,000 income bracket are eligible for full amount of P10,000 compared to a percentage-subsidized amount of P10,000 for the other income brackets. What Salazar want is for the higher income class to pay for the tuition fee of the lower income bracket. Further details, CB Internal Vice-President and chairman of research committee on SAEP stated.

The Center for Social Policies (CSP), an inter-agency research group is also conducting the study. The study is called "in" in the Ateneo. In an interview, Lito Banao of the CSP said "The study is being done in the Ateneo since it was a private to have better ideas. However, CSP will also be conducting the study. At that time, an extensive deliberation among the college community was held. The study is being done in the Ateneo. It was about 1981 in the Ateneo.

According to the CSP, the study would be implemented in the top upper middle class of the country, the so-called "middle class." This study was in line with the evolution of the Ateneo's Scholar Program (ASP) that is underlines by the AA. Results on the study revealed the following results. They are as follows:

Level No.	Income bracket (P.A.)	% of Population	% of Suburban
1	50,000 and below	20%	20%
2	50,000 - 75,000	20%	20%
3	75,000 - 99,000	20%	20%
4	100,000 - 149,000	20%	20%
5	150,000 - 249,000	20%	20%
6	250,000 - 499,000	20%	20%
7	500,000 - 999,000	20%	20%
8	1,000,000 and above	20%	20%

*The 1st level, the median is the average income bracket of a student in Ateneo. The basic tuition fee is P10,000 a year. In an estimated view, the 1st level would be spending 6-10 percent of the annual income for one child, on the other hand, those belonging to the 8th level would be allowing 2 or less percent for one child, therefore, the degree of burden is definitely the same even though tuition is higher for them.

In the system, the percentage of payment is divided by the income bracket to show why they belong. This system, have advantages and disadvantages. Benefits revealed that the system gives a considerable margin of income and the
