

Everyone should have a friend like you. The one who has always been there through it all. Through the laughter, tears and everything in between. The one who helps to put the pieces back together. The one who supports you through loss and celebrates every win. The one who can take the bad days and turn them into amazing nights. The one that reminds us of who we really are and the love that we deserve. The one who is up for any adventure, no matter how ridiculous it may seem. Some people come into our lives and make it better, they make the music louder, the days brighter, and the happiness longer. Thank you for never judging me when I made mistakes, for laughing until the sun comes up and for always being there. You will always be my person, my ride or die, through thick and thin,

Friend for life.
