Acts of Care Sara Ritchey, 2021-03-15 In Acts of Care Sara Ritchey recovers women's healthcare work by identifying previously overlooked tools of care healing prayers birthing indulgences medical blessings liturgical images and penitential practices Ritchey demonstrates that women in premodern Europe were both deeply engaged with and highly knowledgeable about health the body and therapeutic practices but their critical role in medieval healthcare has been obscured because scholars have erroneously regarded the evidence of their activities as religious rather than medical The sources for identifying the scope of medieval women's health knowledge and healthcare practice Ritchey argues are not found in academic medical treatises Rather she follows fragile traces detectable in liturgy miracles poetry hagiographic narratives meditations sacred objects and the daily behaviors that constituted the world as well as in testaments and land transactions from hospitals and leprosaria established and staffed by beguines and Cistercian nuns Through its surprising use of alternate sources Acts of Care reconstructs the vital caregiving practices of religious women in the southern Low Countries reconnecting women's therapeutic authority into the everyday world of late medieval healthcare Thanks to generous funding from the University of Tennessee Knoxville the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access OA volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other Open Access repositories Répertitres François Verschaeve, 2007 La Civiltà cattolica, 1908 Woodwind Music in Print Harry B. Peters, 1997 Catalog of Pre-1900 Vocal Manuscripts in the Music Library, University of California at Berkeley John A. Emerson, 2023-07-28 During the thirty five years from 1946 to 1981 the University of California Berkeley's Music Library amassed nearly 3 500 manuscript volumes thanks to the remarkable efforts of Professor Vincent H Duckies The Catalog of Pre 1900 Vocal Manuscripts focuses on the third major segment of the library's manuscript collection featuring over 700 vocal manuscripts with more than 3 300 separate compositions These works encompass a wide range of musical styles religious and secular vocal and instrumental serious and popular and date from the eleventh to the late nineteenth century Although the catalog does not include musical incipits it provides a valuable inventory of these manuscripts for scholars and researchers The materials were acquired through various antiquarian dealers across Europe and the United States and while some background information may have been lost during transfers the manuscripts remain a rich resource for study Emerson notes that the collection's value will ultimately be determined by the scholarly community whose research and exploration will continue to uncover the insights hidden within these historical documents This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1988 Cum Notis Variorum, 1984 Journal du
