Constructing Faith in the Antipodes Lisa Marie Daunt,2025-12-10 Over 1 650 churches were built in Queensland Australia between 1945 and 1977 They constitute some of the most notable modern architecture in the state and reveal tensions surrounding modernism s role in cultural expression and regional identity While much research has focused on post war modern church architecture in the Global North little has been done on the Global South This book offers a particular perspective on modernist church architecture differing from accounts of buildings in the northern hemisphere as it highlights how church architecture in Queensland was shaped by its very specific time and place a young and developing state covering a vast area of land sparsely populated highly multi denominational and located in the antipodes Modern architectural developments and emergent religious ideas did not simply transfer to Queensland Rather architectural ideas were circulated globally allowing for a global narrative This landmark study seeks to broaden views and methods for future research both locally and internationally Richly illustrated Constructing Faith in the Antipodes combines both a chronological and a thematic approach to narrate modern church architectural history and offers a fascinating glimpse into a distinct collection of modern church buildings

Heysen to Heysen Catherine Speck,2011 This book contains two volumes of African American folk tales collected by J Mason Brewer The stories included in Dog Ghosts are as varied as the Texas landscape as full of contrasts as Texas weather Among them are tales that have their roots deeply imbedded in African Irish and Welsh mythology others have parallels in pre Columbian Mexican tradition and a few have versions that can be traced back to Chaucer s England All make delightful reading The title Dog Ghosts is drawn from the unique stories of dog spirits which Dr Brewer collected in the Red River bottoms and elsewhere in Texas The Word on the Brazos is a delightful collection of preacher tales from the Brazos River bottom in Texas J Mason Brewer worked side by side with field hands in the Brazos bottoms he lived in their homes worshipped in their churches and shared the moments of relaxation in which laughter held full sway Many of the tales these people told were related to religion both good religion and bad religion Some of them concerned preachers and their families while others were stories told in pulpits Mr Brewer has set all of these stories down in authentic yet easily readable dialect They will delight all who are interested in the historic culture of rural African American Texans as well as those who simply enjoy fine humorous stories skillfully told

Rosemary Dobson ,2000 This collection of essays pays tribute to acclaimed Australian poet Rosemary Dobson whose papers are held in the National Library of Australia The book features essays by Elizabeth Lawson Paul Hetherington and David McCooey A selection of Dobson s poems highlight her diversity and artistry

Nine Lives Susan Sheridan,2011 In the decades after World War II the literary scene in Australia flourished local writers garnered international renown and local publishers sought and produced more Australian books The traditional view of this postwar period is of successful male writers with women still confined to the domestic sphere In Nine Lives Susan Sheridan rewrites the pages of history to foreground the women writers who contributed equally to this literary renaissance Sheridan traces the early careers of nine Australian women writers born between 1915 and 1925 who each achieved success between the mid 1940s and 1970s Judith Wright and Thea Astley published quickly to resounding critical acclaim while Gwen Harwood's frustration with chauvinistic literary editors prompted her pseudonymous poetry Fiction writers Elizabeth Jolley Amy Witting and Jessica Anderson remained unpublished until they were middle aged Rosemary Dobson Dorothy Hewett and Dorothy Auchterlonie Green started strongly as poets in the 1940s but either reduced their output or fell silent for the next twenty years Sheridan considers why their careers developed differently from the careers of their male counterparts and how they balanced marriage family and writing This illuminating group biography offers a fresh perspective on mid twentieth century Australian literature and the women writers who helped to shape it continuing source of both modernity and tradition Beginning with early Aboriginal contact with Indonesians The Yellow Lady shows how chances for harmonious co existence with the neighbourhood were lost in the colonial period Successive wars set back this process of adaptation In the final section as increasing numbers of Asians migrate to Australia and Asian countries become economically dominant Australian images of Asia undergo rapid change Alison Broinowski argues that until Asia is accepted as part of the mainstream of Australian life Australians will remain uncertain about their status and that if Australia s international image is to change it must begin by acknowledging the reality of Asia
