loyal for its pack but at the same time extremely confident intelligent and powerful also During puppyhood its easy to control and train But if you mistakenly lost your leader position in a rottweiler s eyes you will have a really hard time controlling it as an adult dog You need to be extremely disciplined during its puppy stage to train properly become its leader and define rules for the dog During adulthood if a rottweiler is not mated or neutered it becomes aggressive due to hormonal changes Still in any given condition a rottweiler needs a strong owner even if neutered Though all dogs who lack exercise not neutered or mated are leash pullers But due to strong and big physique a rottweiler is really hard to walk or train to walk It can drag you on ground if you are not strong enough physically You may have hurting arms after every walk Also you need to keep an eye on the dog when it becomes alert looking at passing by strangers during walk Because when it suddenly lunges on anyone you may have injuries and complaints against you Lots of things to take care of when you own a strong dog That s why you need to get experience first before you own any strong guard dog Just don t get a rottweiler because you like the breed You have to evaluate yourself if you are able to handle the rottweiler Get this book for a comprehensive guide on training feeding exercise general behavior and much more GET YOUR COPY TODAY     The Complete Rottweiler Muriel Freeman,1984
