Eternal Mebages:

The Surprise of My Life Claire Drainie Taylor, 2010-10-30 It s an autobiography If I tell you what s in it you won t read the book Claire Drainie Taylor Or would you Maybe you d be intrigued by the progression of a life begun as an unexceptional little girl born to a middle class Jewish Canadian couple in a small prairie town who at age sixteen married a refined Englishman and survived the Great Depression partly alone in a shack in the woods of Vancouver Island Or how only a few months after returning to Vancouver with no training and minimal education this same young woman walked on stage at one of Canada s finest old theatres and went on to a successful thirty year career as an actress and radio dialogue writer Having been compelled by her family to write her memoir it wasn t until she d finished and reread her manuscript that Claire Drainie Taylor realized what an extraordinary life she d led Her descriptions of the many fascinating incidents that make up her story and how she dealt with them revealed herself to herself in a way that illuminates what she calls The Surprise of My Life

Two Letters and Short Rules of a Good Life Robert Southwell, Robert Southwell S J, 1978-07 These three important works by the Elizabethan Jesuit martyr including a previously unknown letter of Robert Cecil demonstrate Southwell s skill as a prose stylist in the service of English Catholicism Exceptional Photoplays, 1921 Unity, 1901 True Life in God Vassula Ryden, 1991-12 Something to Remember It By Ruth A. Lief, 2001 Memoirs Narrating Marriage in Eighteenth-Century England and France Dr Chris Roulston, 2013-04-28 In the eighteenth century when the definition of marriage was shifting from one based on an hierarchical model to one based on notions of love and mutuality marital life came under a more intense cultural scrutiny This led to paradoxical forms of representation of marriage as simultaneously ideal and unlivable Chris Roulston analyzes how as representations of married life increased they challenged the traditional courtship model offering narratives based on repetition rather than progression Beginning with English and French marital advice literature which appropriated novelistic conventions at the same time that it cautioned readers about the dangers of novel reading she looks at representations of ideal marriages in Pamela II and The New Heloise Moving on from these ideal domestic spaces bourgeois marriage is then problematized by the discourse of empire in Sir George Ellison and Letters of Mistress Henley by troublesome wives in works by Richardson and Samuel de Constant and by abusive husbands in works by Haywood Edgeworth Genlis and Restif de la Bretonne Finally the alternative marriage narrative in which the adultery motif is incorporated into the marriage itself redefines the function of heteronormativity In exploring the theoretical issues that arise during this transitional period for married life and the marriage plot Roulston expands the debates around the evolution of the modern couple Presidential Conflict in Côte d'Ivoire T. Y. Okosun, 2017-12-27 Presidential Conflict in C te d Ivoire Governance Political Power and Social Justice explores the 2011 2012 presidential conflict in C te d Ivoire focusing on the conflict s impact on governance political power civil society security and social justice The book examines the ways in which dictatorial governance detracts from democratic and civil society aspiration the intersection of power based conflict and its impact on citizens and their security and the role ethnic sentiments and negation play in de-emphasizing the humanity of non-favored groups. Moreover, the presidents' conflicting perspectives on the nature of governance and political power marginalized concerns specifically regarding the significance of democracy, civil society, and social justice. Despite President Laurent Gbagbo's challenge and demand for democracy, his presidency was unable to avoid morphing into dictatorial and autocratic governance. Autocracy and dictatorship had already in-seminated Côte d'Ivoire during the thirty years of President Félix Houphouët-Boigny's benign dictatorship. It is within this rigidity that Gbagbo, a product of Ivorian socio-political history socialized in dictatorial ethnic and elite sentiments, constructed his version of autocracy and dictatorship and refused to yield power to a new president-elect Alassane Ouattara, triggering a national presidential conflict. This analysis of the presidential conflict is an effort to forestall future similar issues around the globe but specifically in poor and developing nations from destabilization and violence. The book concludes with an African Conflict Transformation model constructed as a consultative option for political conflict mitigation purposes.

Queer Voices in the Works of Richard von Krafft-Ebing, 1883-1901

Douglas Pretsell, 2023-01-01. This book is a critical edition of the autobiographical case studies used by the Austro-German psychiatrist Richard von Krafft-Ebing between 1883 and 1901. Forty-one individual case studies of same-sex attracted men and women in their own words made an eye-catching component of Krafft-Ebing's most important work, Psychopathia Sexualis. Although the psychiatrist probably edited the autobiographical case studies with the racier passages rendered in rather rudimentary Latin, what is particularly remarkable is that he preserved an unmistakable queer discourse in some of the case studies that disputed the pathologising ideologies of the psychiatric texts in which they were embedded. Most of the autobiographies of same-sex attracted men follow the discursive patterns established in nineteenth-century psychiatry in providing descriptions of body features including genital size and shape, mental and physical health, family histories of health and disease, and accounts of life events from childhood to the present. This was because these men had been following Krafft-Ebing's works and were now using their autobiographical contributions in Psychopathia Sexualis as a platform for negotiating the parameters of sexual orientation. Women's sexuality was a relatively undeveloped component of Krafft-Ebing's sexology, but there are four case studies of women containing autobiographical content. Similarly, gender variance was hardly differentiated from sexuality at this period, but there are three autobiographies that clearly articulate cross-gender identification, anticipating the future categories of transsexual and transgender. Krafft-Ebing reserved his therapeutic interventions to those individuals attracted to both sexes where hypnosis could suppress same-sex urges. Seven of these individuals supplied sexual autobiographies, with two of them undergoing treatment as part of the overall case study. Together, these forty-one accounts give the reader a window into queer self-conceptions in Austria and Germany as the nineteenth century drew to a close.
