Europe Az Blueprint:

Blueprint Europe A-Z Anna-Lena Bergkvist,1991 Provides brief introductions to traveling in each of the countries of Europe including newly changed Eastern Europe that cover such details as climate transportation crime social customs food and places to see Europe from A to Z Werner Weidenfeld, Wolfgang Wessels, Institut für Europäische Politik,1997

Current Bibliographical Information Dag Hammarskjöld Library,1990 Against European Integration Ivan T. Berend,2019-04-18 This book gives a complex description and discussion of today s populist attacks against the European Union EU following the financial crisis of 2008 which opened the floodgates of dissatisfaction and the migration crisis which destabilized the traditional solidarity basis of the EU The problem of Brexit is also explored Each chapter presents one of the main elements of the crisis of the EU These include West European populism Central European right wing populism in power and the exploitation of the EU s mistake during the migration crisis of the mid 2010s These also include the discovery of Christian ideology against immigration and hidden anti Semitic propaganda using a hysterical attack against the liberal billionaire philanthropist George Soros and Brexit There is a detailed discussion of the failures of the EU to pacify the neighbourhood in the South and North especially in Ukraine and the rising hostile outside enemies of the EU including Russia and Turkey bad relationships with Trump s America the uncertainty of NATO and the emergence of a new rival China that enters into the Central European edge of the EU The author explores strategies for coping with and emerging from this existential crisis and ends with the alternative plans and possibilities for the future of the eurozone This will be an invaluable resource for understanding the crisis of the EU one of the central questions of contemporary international politics for undergraduate and graduate students and readers interested in the discussion surrounding an endangered European integration and difficult world politics Participatory Democratic Innovations in Southeast Europe Irena

Fiket, Čedomir Markov, Vujo Ilić, Gazela Pudar Draško,2024-04-08 This volume strengthens the dialogue between conceptual perspectives approaches and fields on deliberative and participatory forms of democratic innovation and offers novel insights focusing on the Southeast European space Traditional forms of participation seem insufficient in satisfying the growing complexity of the democratic processes especially in the context of autocratizing societies It is crucial to examine the possibilities of democratic innovation in political research and practice trying to establish a connection between the possibilities and limits of representative democracy and social movements as possible carriers of the process of democratic innovation This book offers novel insights into practices of civil society and social movements and their pathways carved to initiate a deep change in political thinking and practice and compelling insights for scholars and students of Southeast Europe social movements and democracy The Aftermath of the Global Crisis in the European Union Beáta Farkas,2014-03-17 This collective volume is undoubtedly a major contribution to understanding the causes and consequences of the crisis of the Euro zone with a special emphasis on the implications of new and not yet EMU members A skilful combination of contrasting theoretical and policy perspectives a refreshing interchange among academics and practitioners from a number of countries it is a must reading for anyone seriously interested in the political economy of crisis and reform in Europe L szl Csaba Professor of International Political Economy Central European University and Corvinus University of Budapest Past President the European Association for Comparative Economic Studies This book offers a refreshing analysis of what is rapidly becoming Europe s lost decade The authors all established experts in their fields see light at the end of the tunnel but it seems quite distant Andr Sapir Senior Fellow Bruegel Professor of Economics Universit libre de Bruxelles The papers included in the volume uphold the pressing question of whether Europe can resume its role as a growth and convergence engine Issues of growth macro stabilization and employment in the economically diversified internal market come in this context to the fore of the discussion The editor of the volume Professor Beata Farkas skilfully brings together research focusing on diverse facets of the European economies in order to address questions such as 1 Does one size fit all 2 How can we change the EU budget to make it more effective 3 Can Europe learn some lessons from the two lost decades in Japan 4 Is inflation targeting a proper approach in defining monetary policy 5 How do we conduct an effective fiscal policy The added value of the volume consists in diversified methodological and conceptual perspectives employed to address the problems at hand Ideas and arguments are presented in a novel and interdisciplinary manner As such the discussion that unfolds throughout the volume will be stimulating for researchers decision makers in the government and those in the corporate world My recommendation is simple take the book and read it Katarzyna ukrowska Professor of International Economics and Political Science Head of the International Security Department Warsaw School of Economics Member of the Prognoses Committee Polish Academy of Science
