Ethnomethodology's Program:

Ethnomethodology's Program Harold Garfinkel, 2002-06-11 Since the 1967 publication of Studies in Ethnomethodology Harold Garfinkel has indelibly influenced the social sciences and humanities worldwide This new book the long awaited sequel to Studies comprises Garfinkel's work over three decades to further elaborate the study of ethnomethodology Working out Durkheim's Aphorism the title used for this new book emphasizes Garfinkel's insistence that his position focuses on fundamental sociological issues and that interpretations of his position as indifferent to sociology have been misunderstandings Durkheim's aphorism states that the concreteness of social facts is sociology's most fundamental phenomenon Garfinkel argues that sociologists have for a century or more ignored this aphorism and treated social facts as theoretical or conceptual constructions Garfinkel in this new book shows how and why sociology must restore Durkheim's aphorism through an insistence on the concreteness of social facts that are produced by complex social practices enacted by participants in the social order Garfinkel's new book like Studies will likely stand as another landmark in sociological theory yet it is clearer and more concrete in revealing human social practices

The Ethnomethodology Program Douglas W. Maynard, John Heritage, 2022 It's been more than fifty years since Harold Garfinkel created the field of ethnomethodology a discipline that offers a new way of understanding how people make sense of their everyday world Since his book Studies in Ethnomethodology published in 1967 there has been a substantial although often subterranean growth in ethnomethodological EM work Studies in and appreciation of ethnomethodological work continue to grow but the breadth and penetration of his insights and inspiration for ongoing research have yet to secure their full measure of recognition This volume celebrates Harold Garfinkel's enormous contributions to sociology and conversation analysis exploring how ethnomethodology emerged the empirical consequences of Garfinkel's work and the significant contemporary work that has resulted from it Douglas W. Maynard and John Heritage bring together experts from a wide range of theoretical and empirical areas to create the first comprehensive collection of work on EM that encompasses its role in studies of work in Conversation Analysis and in other subdisciplines Chapters highlight ethnomethodology's distinctive forms of ethnographic inquiry and its influences on a host of substantive domains including legal environments science and technology workplace and organizational inquiries survey research social problems and deviance and disability and atypical interaction The book explains how EM especially helped to set the agenda for gender studies while also developing insights for inquiries into racial and ethnic features of everyday life and experience Still there is much of what Garfinkel called unfinished business which means that ethnomethodological inquiries are continuing to intensify and develop Harold Garfinkel and Ethnomethodology addresses this unfinished business not only drawing attention to past accomplishments in the field but also suggesting how these accomplishments set the stage for future endeavors that will benefit from EM inspired approaches to social organization and interaction

Harold Garfinkel and Ethnomethodology Douglas W. Maynard, Maureen T. Hallinan Professor of Sociology Emeritus Douglas W Maynard, Distinguished Professor of Sociology Emeritus John Heritage, John Heritage, 2022 Since Harold Garfinkel's Studies in Ethnomethodology was first published over 50 years ago there has been a substantial amount of ethnomethodological EM research in many different areas from Conversation Analysis to legal studies This book covers the wide range of EM influences with chapters from experts in these theoretical and empirical fields In doing so it not only draws attention to past accomplishments in EM research but also suggests how these accomplishments set the table for future endeavors in the human sciences
