Hanukkah Money:

Hanukkah Money Sholem Aleichem, 1991 Two young brothers wonder how much money they will receive from their relatives for Hanukkah Judaism, Burning Lights Bella Chagall, 2013-04-26 It is an odd thing a desire comes to me to write and to write in my faltering mother tongue which as it happens I have not spoken since I left the home of my parents Far as my childhood years have receded from me I now suddenly find them coming back to me closer and closer to me so near they could be breathing into my mouth I see myself so clearly a plump little thing a tiny girl running all over the place pushing my way from one door through another hiding like a curled up little worm with my feet up on our broad window sills My father my mother the two grandmothers my handsome grandfather my own and outside families the comfortable and the needy weddings and funerals our streets and gardens all this streams before my eyes like the deep waters of our Dvina My old home is not there any more Everything is gone even dead My father may his prayers help us has died My mother is living and God alone knows whether she still lives in an un Jewish city that Is quite alien to her The children are scattered In this world and the other some here some there But each of them in place of his vanished inheritance has taken with him like a piece of his father s shroud the breath of the parental home I am unfolding my piece of heritage and at once there rise to my nose the odours of my old home My ears begin to sound with the clamour of the shop and the melodies that the rabbi sang on holidays From every corner a shadow thrusts out and no sooner do I touch it than it pulls me Into a dancing circle with other shadows They jostle one another prod me in the back grasp me by the hands the feet until all of them together fall upon me like a host of humming flies on a hot day I do not know where to take refuge from them And so just once I want very much to wrest from the darkness a day an hour a moment belonging to my vanished home But how does one bring back to life such a moment Dear God it is so hard to draw out a fragment of bygone life from fleshless memories And what if they should flicker out my lean memories and die away together with me I want to rescue them I recall that you my faithful friend have often in affection begged me to tell you about my life in the time before you knew me So I am writing for you Religious Celebrations Bloomsbury Publishing, 2011-09-13 This two volume work presents a comprehensive survey of all the ways people celebrate religious life around the globe Religious Celebrations is an alphabetically organized encyclopedia that covers more than 800 celebratory occasions from all of the world s major religious communities as well as many of the minor faith traditions The encyclopedia provides a complete reference tool for examining the myriad ways people worldwide celebrate their religious lives across religious boundaries providing information on numerous celebratory activities never before covered in a reference work Offering the most comprehensive coverage of religious holidays ever assembled this two volume book covers festivals commemorations holidays and annual religious gatherings all over the world with special attention paid to the celebrations in larger countries Entries written by distinguished researchers and specialists on different religious communities capture the unique intensity of each event be it fasting or feasting frenzied activity or the universal
