Lab,2010-02-02 For a free 30 day online trial to this title visit www.sagepub.com/freetrial In many ways the two fields of victimology and crime prevention have developed along parallel yet separate paths and the literature on both has been scattered across disciplines as varied as sociology law and criminology public health and medicine political science and public policy economics psychology and human services and others The Encyclopedia of Victimology and Crime Prevention brings together in one authoritative resource the dispersed information and knowledge on both victimology and crime prevention With nearly 375 entries this two volume set moves victimology and crime prevention one step further into recognized scholarly fields whose research informs practice and whose practice informs research

Key Features Provides users with the most authoritative and comprehensive coverage available on victimology and crime prevention Presents victimology and crime prevention as their own separate justifiable disciplines rather than subfields within more established disciplines Discusses the status of victims within the criminal justice system as well as topics of deterring and preventing victimization in the first place and responding to victims needs Offers anchor essays written by leading scholars in their respective fields to provide starting points for investigating the more salient victimology and crime prevention topics

Key Themes Business Prevention Actions Civil Justice System Correlates of Victimization Courts Alternative Remedies Courts Law and Justice Crime Prevention Crime Prevention Partnerships Criminal Justice System Fear of Crime Individual Protection Actions Interventions and Intervention Programs for Victim and Offender Intrafamilial Offenses Legislation and Statutes Media and Crime Prevention Methodology Offenses Special Topics Official Crime Data Personal Offenses Property Offenses Psychological Mental and Physical Health Issues Residential Community

Crime Prevention School and Workplace Offenses School Based Crime Prevention Services and Treatment for Victims Theory Victimization Scales and Surveys Victimology Youth Focused Crime Prevention The victimology crime prevention nexus provides the foundation for a comprehensive and hopefully long lasting approach to addressing the public s risk of being victimized and aids individuals who are targeted by a criminal act This is a welcome addition to any academic library The availability in print and electronic formats provides students with convenient easy access wherever they may be

Mandated Reporting of Child Abuse and Neglect Kenneth Lau, Kathryn Krase, Richard H. Morse, 2008-12-02 A concise and detailed description of a very complex issue rich in detail and insight Leslie J Temme LCSW School of Social Work Adelphi University A must have resource for practicing professionals and an invaluable teaching tool for social work students This is precisely the book that mandated reporters seek to assist in the reporting process and understanding their legal obligations Keva M Miller PhD LCSW School of Social Work Portland State University In all states social workers are required to report suspected child abuse and neglect and face serious penalties if they fail to do so But not all cases of abuse are obvious Mandated reporters are thus confronted with a host of both legal and ethical quandaries when filing a report What are the responsibilities of mandated reporters What are appropriate grounds for reporting abuse How and when should a report be made Does reporting suspected abuse violate client confidentiality What if my employer encourages me not to report my suspicions Addressing these questions and more this book provides clear definitions of different types of child abuse including physical sexual and emotional and delineates guidelines on how to identify risk factors and signs of child maltreatment The authors also clarify difficult ethical issues including client confidentiality and privileged communication and present numerous case studies and theoretical vignettes culled from their own experiences as social workers This guide will be the one resource mandated reporters and social work students cannot do without *California.
