Haraszthy at the Mint Brian McGinty, 1975 Sonoma Wine and the Story of Buena Vista Charles L.

Sullivan, 2013-10-01 The beginning of history for California wine starts with 17th century but the industry and commercial powerhouse that commands 60 percent of the United States market was birthed 200 years later the product of a Hungarian aristocrat European grapes and the Sonoma Valley In this groundbreaking book by historian and bestselling author Charles L. Sullivan the untold history of Sonoma wine serves as backdrop to the turbulent story of California's first commercial winery Buena Vista from its founding by brilliant but quixotic Agoston Haraszthy through phyloxera plague and the dry years of prohibition to its present day market prominence Sonoma Wine and the Story of Buena Vista is a scholarly study of two centuries of California wine history told in a riveting narrative that will engage and delight Crush John

Briscoe, 2018-09-04 Winner TopShelf Magazine Book Awards Historical Non fiction Finalist Northern California Book Awards General Non Fiction Look Smell Taste Judge Crush is the 200 year story of the heady dream that wines as good as the greatest of France could be made in California A dream dashed four times in merciless succession until it was ultimately realized in a stunning blind tasting in Paris In that tasting in the year of America's bicentennial California wines took their place as the leading wines of the world For the first time Briscoe tells the complete and dramatic story of the ascendancy of California wine in vivid detail He also profiles the larger story of California itself by looking at it from an entirely innovative perspective the state seen through its singular wine history With dramatic flair and verve Briscoe not only recounts the history of wine and winemaking in California he encompasses a multidimensional approach that takes into account an array of social political cultural legal and winemaking sources Elements of this history have plot lines that seem scripted by a Sophocles or Shakespeare It is a fusion of wine personal histories cultural and socioeconomic aspects Crush is the story of how wine from California finally gained its global due Briscoe recounts wine's often fickle affair with California now several centuries old from the first harvest and vintage through the four overwhelming catastrophes to its amazing triumph in Paris

The California Wine Industry 1830-1895 Vincent P. Carosso, 2023-04-28 The California Wine Industry 1830 1895 offers a meticulously researched account of the formative years of California's viticulture tracing its evolution from the mission period through to the late 19th century The book captures the pivotal role of grape cultivation in shaping California's agricultural and economic identity Through detailed analysis Carosso examines the cultural climatic and economic conditions that made California a leading wine producer in the United States as well as the challenges faced by early growers and winemakers in establishing the industry The narrative highlights the profound contributions of Spanish missionaries European immigrants and American settlers who brought diverse techniques and traditions to the region This volume provides valuable insights into the intersection of agriculture and society delving into the adaptation of European viticultural practices to California's unique environment It also explores the social economic and legislative shifts that influenced the industry's trajectory including the decline of mission dominance and the rise of private enterprises Enriched with historical anecdotes production statistics and discussions on climate and geography The California Wine Industry 1830-1895 is an essential resource for historians wine enthusiasts and those interested in the broader history of California's development This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1951

A History of Wine in America, Volume 1 Thomas Pinney, 2007-09-17 The Vikings called North America Vinland the land of wine Giovanni de Verrazzano the Italian explorer who first described the grapes of the New World was sure that they would yield excellent wines And when the English settlers found grapes growing so thickly that they covered the ground down to the very seashore they concluded that in all the world the like abundance is not to be found Thus from the very beginning the promise of America was in part the alluring promise of wine How that promise was repeatedly baffled how its realization was gradually begun and how at last it has been triumphantly fulfilled is the story told in this book It is a story that touches on nearly every section of the United States and includes the whole range of American society from the founders to the latest immigrants Germans in Pennsylvania Swiss in Georgia Minorcans in Florida Italians in Arkansas French in Kansas Chinese in California all contributed to the domestication of Bacchus in the New World So too did innumerable individuals institutions and organizations Prominent politicians obscure farmers eager amateurs sober scientists these and all the other kinds and conditions of American men and women figure in the story The history of wine in America is in many ways the history of American origins and of American enterprise in microcosm While much of that history has been lost to sight especially after Prohibition the recovery of the record has been the goal of many investigators over the years and the results are here brought together for the first time In print in its entirety for the first time A History of Wine in America is the most comprehensive account of winemaking in the United States from the Norse discovery of native grapes in 1001 A D through Prohibition and up to the present expansion of winemaking in every state
