willing to learn your spouse's primary love language if you are to be an effective communicator of love. This session covers a brief overview of the five love languages, takes the five love languages profile, and discovers how to use the profile. Session 2: Words of Affirmation 14-47. Verbal compliments are powerful communicators of love. Learn how to speak words of affirmation, encouragement, kindness, and humbleness to the person whose love language is words of affirmation. Session 3: Quality Time 18-54. Quality time means giving someone your undivided attention, and a central aspect of quality time is togetherness. Spending time together in a common pursuit communicates that you and your spouse care about each other, enjoy being with each other, and that you like to do things together. Session 4: Receiving Gifts 18-24. Gifts are visual symbols of love. To the person whose primary love language is receiving gifts, the cost of the gift will matter little. The worth of the gift has little to do with monetary value and everything to do with love. Session 5: Acts of Service 12-10. Doing simple chores around the house can be an undeniable expression of love. It requires thought, planning, time, effort, and energy. If done with a positive spirit, they are indeed expressions of love. Session 6: Physical Touch 18-18. Physical touch is a powerful vehicle for communicating marital love, and for some individuals, physical touch is their primary love language. Without it, they feel unloved. With it, their emotional tank is filled, and they feel secure in the love of their spouse. Session 7: Growing in Love 36-24. We've been led to believe that if we are really in love, it will last forever. But true love cannot begin until the in-love experience has run its course. If we learn to meet each other's deep emotional need to feel loved and choose to do so, then the love we share will be exciting beyond anything we ever felt when we were infatuated.
