Applying the entire toolkit

FOCUS TOOLKIT

Activity or situation

It's time to apply everything you've learnt in this course to the situation or activity you decided to improve at the beginning of the course.

It's important to prepare by thinking about what you'll need to be focused on during the activity or situation. Try imagining yourself doing it and then make notes for each point of focus. Afterwards, reflect on how it went and make notes on what you focused on, or what you realised you should have focused on, so you can improve next time.
