

4 SYSTEMS

for David Tudor on a birthday

Earl Brown

The image displays four systems of musical notation, each consisting of a horizontal line with various markings. The markings include thin horizontal lines, thick horizontal lines, and vertical tick marks. The lines are arranged in a staggered, non-linear fashion across the four systems, suggesting a complex, multi-layered musical structure. The notation is minimalist and abstract, focusing on the spatial and temporal relationships between the lines rather than traditional musical symbols.

May be played in any sequence, either side up, at any tempo. The continuous lines from far left to far right define the outer limits of the keyboard. Thickness may indicate dynamics or slurs.
