The Reformation

The Reformation was a major religious movement in the 16th century that led to the creation of Protestant churches. It began in 1517 when Martin Luther posted his 95 Theses in Wittenberg, Germany. The movement spread across Europe, challenging the authority of the Roman Catholic Church and leading to significant changes in religious practices and church governance.

- Martin Luther's 95 Theses
- John Calvin's Geneva
- Ulrich Zwingli's Zurich
- Henry VIII's English Reformation
- The Protestant Reformation
- The Catholic Reformation

The Reformation led to the emergence of several major Protestant denominations, including Lutheranism, Calvinism, and Anglicanism. These movements emphasized the Bible as the sole authority and rejected the hierarchical structure of the Catholic Church. The Reformation also had significant political and social implications, leading to the rise of nation-states and the end of the Middle Ages.
