THE TEXT

1- (CNN) - A passion for travel and adventure brought Emma and Peter Tryon together. The UK couple, who are both teachers, began dating when they were both on separate backpacking trips in Cambodia, and took many vacations together before getting married and having two sons, Hudson, five and Darien, two.

2- While they planned to stay in one place once they became parents, they soon got restless and the lure of globetrotting with their children proved too tempting to resist. After months of saving and making plans, they sold their home, officially withdrew their oldest son from school, and set off on their travels.

3- "I get why people would think we're nuts," she adds, admitting that they questioned whether they were doing the right thing at first. "When I actually had to sign the papers to formally opt out of UK education -- it hit differently. I thought, "This is a big deal." Under UK law, there is no specific requirements for the content of homeschooling, only that parents must provide their children with a suitable education.

4- Peter Tryon stresses that one of the main factors behind their decision was the desire to spend more time together as a family. "We've found that the adventure, spontaneity and the challenges of travelling bring us together and also create the opportunity to bond in a unique and strong way," he says.

5- While they have no regrets, both admit that their new lifestyle has come with its challenges. Although being teachers themselves has proved to be an advantage in many ways, Emma Tryon feels they perhaps "went in too hard with the education" at the start, explaining that they have since gone for a more relaxed approach. "But it is amazing how quick, fast, natural and easy learning becomes when it's done by intentionally living and learning as you go."

6- In 2021, the Tryons launched a YouTube channel in order to share their story, and also have a website, The Backpacking Family. Now they have spent a year travelling while homeschooling their children, both say it feels completely natural, and they have no regrets. "It's a genuine, deep change in life."
