Gender Performance Identity:

The Performance Identities of Lady Gaga Richard J. Gray II, 2014-01-10 Three years after entering the pop music scene Lady Gaga became the most well known pop star in the world These thirteen critical essays explore Lady Gaga's body of work through the interdisciplinary filter of performance identity and cover topics such as gender and sexuality body commodification visual body rhetoric drag performance homosexuality and heteronormativity Surrealism and the theatre of cruelty the carnivalesque monstrosity imitation and parody human rights and racial politics Of particular interest is the way that Lady Gaga'suvre however popular strange raw or controversial enters into the larger sociopolitical discourse challenging the status quo and altering our perceptions of reality Post-feminist practices, subjectivities and intimacies in global context Mehita Iqani, Caio De Araújo, Reinventing Identities Mary Bucholtz, A. C. Liang, Laurel A. Sutton, 1999-09-02 Talk is crucial to the way our identities are constructed altered and defended Feminist scholars in particular have only begun to investigate how deeply language reflects and shapes who we think we are This volume of previously unpublished essays the first in the new series Studies in Language and Gender advances that effort by bringing together leading feminist scholars in the area of language and gender including Deborah Tannen Jennifer Coates and Marcyliena Morgan as well as rising younger scholars Topics explored include African American drag queens gender and class on the shopping channel and talk in the workplace Passing Rhetorics and the Performance of Gender Identity Kim Surkan, 2003 Performing Identity in the Era of COVID-19 Lauren O'Mahony, Rahul K. Gairola, Melissa Merchant, Simon Order, 2023-07-31 This innovative volume compels readers to re think the notions of performance performing and non performativity in the context of the COVID 19 global pandemic Given these multi faceted ways of thinking about performance and its complicated manifestations throughout the pandemic this volume is organised into umbrella topics that focus on three of the most important aspects of identity for cultural and intercultural studies in this historical moment language race gender sexuality and the digital world In critically re thinking the meaning of performance in the era of COVID 19 contributors first explore how language is differently staged in the context of the global pandemic compelling us to normalise an entirely new verbal lexicon Second they survey the pandemic's disturbing impact on socio political identities rooted in race class gender and sexuality Third contributors examine how the digital milieu compels us to reorient the inside outside binary with respect to multilingual subjects those living with disability those delivering staged performances and even corresponding audiences Together these diverse voices constitute a powerful chorus that rigorously excavates the hidden impacts of the global pandemic on how we have changed the ways in which we perform identity throughout a viral crisis This volume is thus a timely asset for all readers interested in identity studies performance studies digital and technology studies language studies global studies and COVID 19 studies It was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Intercultural Studies Makeup, Identity Performance & Discrimination, 2007 This symposium analyzes two seemingly conflicting value systems in recent employment discrimination cases one that prohibits stereotyping in the workplace and another that upholds workplace appearance standards

Queer Film Festivals and Urban Space Theresa Heath, 2025-03-10 This timely and innovative book argues that queer film festivals reclaim urban space for queer women and other marginalised queer subjects through the mobilisation of both material and diegetic space It is a response to the loss of queer urban venues and community spaces across across many parts of the Global North and a claim for the political potential of queer film festivals in the context of late stage capitalism Drawing from critical events studies film and film festival scholarship archival research cultural geography and research in the creative industries the book deploys an interdisciplinary arsenal of tools in order to understand the complexity of festival space Covering the period from 1980 to the present the volume posits original case studies of two long running festivals as well as analysis of ephemeral grassroots events This thorough and critical exploration offers significant insight into the strategies deployed by queer film festivals to carve out queer geographies in the city and the potential of event driven place making to construct alternative morphologies and more equitable approaches to urban space This volume will be of pivotal interest to students scholars and academics of critical event and festival studies film and film festival studies cultural creative and media industries cultural geography sociology and urban studies as well as those with an interest in these areas more generally

Performance and the Construction of Identity in U.S. Latino Fiction Karen Sue Christian, 1994 The Discourse System of American Lesbians and Gays Anita Carolyn Liang, 1998 Feminist Theory Wendy K. Kolmar, Frances Bartkowski, 2005 This comprehensive reader represents the history intellectual breadth and diversity of feminist theory An historical framework organizes a great wealth of selections 103 in all with an entirely new concluding Part VII that covers 1995 2002

Performance, Power and the Art of the Aegean Bronze Age Senta C. German, 2005 Are we to believe that Late Minoan Crete was over run with dancers and bull leapers As Senta German shows dancing and bull leaping were the most prevalent themes of Late Bronze Age glyptic art although aside from their demonstration of a social and perhaps symbolic activity they also had a much deeper function in Late Minoan society Performing Identities Luanne Marie Castle, 1995

The Gendered Object Pat Kirkham, 1996 From Barbie and Action Man to guns via bicycles perfume and trainers The gendered object is an intriguing collection of new writing on the way in which objects of everyday life are made socially acceptable and appropriate for women or men What does the Strawberry Shortcake doll tell us about views of the adult female body When does the necktie become anti establishment How does a woman relate to a washing machine And can a hearing aid really be gendered These questions are answered and many others raised in this entertaining study of design for men and women

Monatshefte, 1946 Long Live the King Maite Escudero-Alías, 2009 Masculinity is no longer a monolithic category if ever it was Long Live The King explores in depth the drag king phenomenon as well as key theoretical texts by feminist postcolonial and cultural thinkers

Rights, Roots, and Resistance Land and Indigenous (trans) Nationalism in Contemporary Hawai'i Cari Costanzo Kapur, 2005 In the dissertation I examine the ways in which the emergence of the contemporary native Hawaiian nationalist movement has shaped identity formation among Hawai'i's multi ethnic population My research results draw on twenty two months of ethnographic fieldwork on the island of Oahu and incorporate a combination of life narratives participant observation legal interpretation statistical data and textual analysis I argue that in the face of indigenous activism land has become important to identity formation and cultural production for not only native Hawaiians but also many non native residents of Hawai'i I show that the mutual constitution of indigenous and non indigenous identities in Hawai'i influences both everyday practice and memories about the past For example I show that cultural practices deemed in anthropological literature and popular social narratives as self defining for indigenous peoples such as traditional agricultural work and native language acquisition can hold deep personal meaning for non native people as well Further examining collective memory in Hawai'i I suggest that changing cultural political and economic contexts influence the way history is remembered Specifically through ethnographies of public spaces intended to celebrate diverse ethnic migrations to Hawai'i I argue that at distinct historical moments certain stories from the past become critical to the ability of local residents to develop a sense of belonging in the present

Gendering Modern Japanese History Barbara Molony, Kathleen S. Uno, 2005 In the past quarter century gender has emerged as a lively area of inquiry for historians and other scholars This text looks at the issue in the context of modern Japanese history considering topics such as sexuality gender prescriptions and same sex and heterosexual relations

Performing America Abroad Leopold Lippert, 2018 What happens to America when it does not coincide with the geographical and institutional boundaries of the U S nation state What does America mean when it is performed abroad and circulates among populations and publics outside U S national contexts Performing America Abroad explores an unlikely American studies archive contemporary cultural performances in Austria and Germany which refer to the American cultural imaginary but enact it with a transnational difference The book discusses the ambivalent cultural politics of these enactments in the context of neoliberal capitalism specifically it looks at several cross racial performances of Indianness on various Austrian stages it examines queer political demonstrators on Vienna's central Ringstrasse who celebrate the legacy of the 1969 New York Stonewall riots and it discusses the Americanness of a series of theatrical adaptations of Arthur Miller's 1949 play Death of a Salesman in Germany and Austria

Performance and Performativity in German Cultural Studies Carolin Duttlinger, Lucia Ruprecht, 2003 Duttlinger German Wadham College Oxford introduces a dozen papers selected from a conference held in 2002 at the University of Cambridge that apply the critical theory concepts of performance and performativity to German cultural studies Though the German language has no single equivalent for performance English and German speaking scholar
