Fictions of Resolution in Three Victorian Novels Deirdre David, 1978      Fictions of Resolution in Three Victorian Novels Deirdre David, 1981      The Mother / Daughter Plot Marianne Hirsch, 1989-10-22 Mothers and daughters the female figures neglected by classic psychoanalysis and submerged in traditional narrative are at the center of this book The novels of nineteenth and twentieth century women writers from the Western European and North American traditions reveal that the story of motherhood remains the unspeakable plot of Western culture Focusing on the feminine and more controversially on the maternal this book alters our perception of both the familial structures basic to traditional narrative the Oedipus story and the narrative structures basic to traditional representations of the family Freud's family romance Confronting psychoanalytic theories of subject formation with narrative theories Marianne Hirsch traces the emergence and transformation of female family romance patterns from Jane Austen to Marguerite Duras      Elizabeth Gaskell Nancy S. Weyant, 1994 Identifies biographies newly discovered correspondence critical works and other bibliographies An extensive subject index provides easy access to 350 entries      The Angel Out of the House Dorice Williams Elliott, 2002 Elliott English U of Kansas examines how novels and other literary texts portray women in the middle and upper classes taking an active part in endeavors that were perceived to have important social economic and political consequences Such works she says helped produce and authorize women's desires to participate in such endeavors Her study began as a doctoral dissertation for Johns Hopkins University Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Nineteenth-Century Settler Emigration in British Literature and Art Fariha Shaikh, 2018-05-25 Demonstrates how the textual output of settler emigration shapes the nineteenth century literary and artistic imagination Nineteenth Century Settler Emigration in British Literature and Art is the first book to undertake a comprehensive survey of the literature produced by nineteenth century settler emigration Arguing that the demographic shift to settler colonies in Canada Australia New Zealand was supported and underpinned by a vast outpouring of text this monograph brings printed emigrants letters manuscript shipboard newspapers and settler fiction into conversation with the works of Charles Dickens Elizabeth Gaskell Catherine Helen Spence and Ford Madox Brown amongst others The monograph demonstrates how the textual cultures of settler emigration pervaded the nineteenth century cultural imagination and provided authors and artists with a means of interrogating representations of space and place home making and colonial encounters Key features First study to make the case for the literature arising from nineteenth century settler emigration as the distinct genre of emigration literature Interdisciplinary approach combining literary criticism art history and cultural geography Studies canonical authors and artists Charles Dickens Elizabeth Gaskell Ford Madox Brown James Collinson Richard Redgrave Abraham Solomon and Thomas Webster alongside ephemera leading to an integrated and comprehensive study of settler culture      Hard Times (Fourth International Student Edition) (Norton Critical Editions) Charles Dickens, 2016-08-22 An excellent collection of critical and social commentary that will help to make Dickens image of Victorian England meaningful to all students John Howard Wilson Dakota Wesleyan University This Norton Critical Edition includes Sylvere Monod s superbly edited text based on the 1854 edition and accompanied by Fred Kaplan s expanded annotations Fourteen illustrations from 1854 to circa 1890 Contextual pieces by social critics and theorists of Dickens time that give readers outstanding examples of views on industrialism education and utilitarianism in the nineteenth century Eight new critical essays by Paulette Kidder David M Levy Christopher Barnes Theodore Dalrymple Christina Lupton Efraim Sicher Nils Clausson and Kent Greenfield and John E Nilsson A Chronology and a Selected Bibliography George Eliot and the British Empire Nancy Henry,2002-01-17 In this study Nancy Henry introduces a set of facts that place George Eliot s life and work within the contexts of mid nineteenth century British colonialism and imperialism Henry examines Eliot s roles as an investor in colonial stocks a parent to emigrant sons and a reader of colonial literature She highlights the importance of these contexts to our understanding of both Eliot s fiction and her situation within Victorian culture Henry argues that Eliot s decision to represent the empire only as it infiltrated the imaginations and domestic lives of her characters illuminates the nature of her Realism The book also re examines the assumptions of postcolonial criticism about Victorian fiction and its relation to empire The Politics of Story in Victorian Social Fiction Rosemarie Bodenheimer,1988 Hard Times (Fourth Edition) (Norton Critical Editions) Charles Dickens,2016-08-22 An excellent collection of critical and social commentary that will help to make Dickens image of Victorian England meaningful to all students John Howard Wilson Dakota Wesleyan University This Norton Critical Edition includes Sylvere Monod s superbly edited text based on the 1854 edition and accompanied by Fred Kaplan s expanded annotations Fourteen illustrations from 1854 to circa 1890 Contextual pieces by social critics and theorists of Dickens time that give readers outstanding examples of views on industrialism education and utilitarianism in the nineteenth century Eight new critical essays by Paulette Kidder David M Levy Christopher Barnes Theodore Dalrymple Christina Lupton Efraim Sicher Nils Clausson and Kent Greenfield and John E Nilsson A Chronology and a Selected Bibliography A New Science Bruce Mazlish,2010-11 What makes this book stand out is the way in which Mazlish situates sociology in the broader context of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century social thought This is the most interesting treatment I have read of how there came to be a felt need for sociology of how a place was created in the intellectual firmament for this new science Craig Calhoun University of North Carolina At a time of the breakdown of sociology or at least the virtual loss of the idea of historicity within the discipline this examination of the birth of sociology can provide valuable insight into the current condition no less than the glorious antecedents of a major field of social research A New Science does a great deal to explain how the field of sociology comes to reject connections and celebrate distinctions distinctions of class race nationality and the like And in the extended discussions of Marx Durkheim Toennies who is especially deserving and often ignored in the great chain of European sociological beings and Weber we get a word picture of some genuine substance and innovation Irving Louis

Horowitz History of European Ideas Although numerous able interpreters have attempted syntheses of the sociological tradition Mazlish is the first to search so boldly for its ultimate intentions Beginning students will find this a stimulating wittily written introduction to the history of sociology Harry Liebersohn American Historical Review An accessible fascinating erudite and provocative tour de force with a memorable even gripping conclusion It is a must for both college and general libraries Choice

Women and Domestic Experience in Victorian Political Fiction Susan Johnston, 2001-02-28 Recent revisions of the idea of separate spheres which governed Victorian scholarship of the past two decades have provoked considerable interest in both domestic and political fiction of the period and in the political dimensions of domestic life This book challenges arguments about the division of the political from other fictional genres and divisions of the private from the public sphere It shows that Victorian literature identified the household as the space in which the political rights bearer came into being While some thinkers maintained that the rights bearer is defined by purely formal reasoning this volume claims that Locke and other educational writers conceived reason as embodying emotion It looks at works by Mary Wollstonecraft Amelia Opie Maria Edgeworth Elizabeth Gaskell and Charles Dickens to reveal how the emotional relations of the household shaped the political self and how women gained identity as rights bearers The book argues that the intimate space of the household does not exist separately from public political and economic domains It revises generic understandings of political fiction and shows that domestic plots are integral to political plots This is so because domestic fiction focuses on the cultivation of the liberal self in the household and the disclosure of that self in terms of its vision of the good The volume concludes that domestic space is the foundation of liberal polity and that an account of the household in which the liberal self is disclosed is at the heart of both Victorian political fiction and philosophy

Subject Catalog, 1981 Library of Congress, 1981 Nineteenth-century Literature, 2006 Contains articles which focus on a broad spectrum of significant figures in fiction philosophy and criticism such as Austen Carlyle Dickens Thackeray the Brontes Tennyson Browning Arnold Emerson Hawthorne Thoreau Whitman Twain and Henry James Whitaker's Cumulative Book List, 1982

George Eliot: Critical essays on individual works Stuart Hutchinson, 1996

The Drama of Self Jane Marie Garrity, 1984 Cahiers Victoriens & Édouardiens, 1987 Subversive Heroines Constance D. Harsh, 1994 Subversive Heroines departs from much recent work on the industrial novel in two important ways it maintains its focus on the novels rather than on the nonfictional condition of England debate and it emphasizes the consistency of the genre's approach to the contemporary crisis of class relations Harsh's examination reveals a covert feminism in Victorian culture and illuminates fundamental gender struggles of the time
