lives and ideas of leading contributors to the contested terrain of development studies Reflecting the diverse interdisciplinary nature of the area Holocaust Escapees and Global Development David Simon,2019-01-15 The thousands uprooted and displaced by the Holocaust had a profound cultural impact on the countries in which they sought refuge with numerous Holocaust escapees attaining prominence as scientists writers filmmakers and artists But what is less well known is the way in which this refugee diaspora shaped the scholarly culture of their new found homes and international policy In this unique work David Simon explores the pioneering role played by mostly Jewish refugee scholars in the creation of development studies and practice following the Second World War and what we can learn about the discipline by examining the social and intellectual history of its early practitioners Through in depth interviews with key figures and their relatives Simon considers how the escapees experiences impacted their scholarship showing how they played a key role in shaping their belief that development really did hold the potential to make a better world free from the horrors of war genocide and discrimination they had experienced under Nazi rule In the process he casts valuable new light on the origins and evolution of development studies policy and practice from this formative postwar period to the present Pioneering the Human Development Revolution Khadija Haq,Richard Ponzio,2008 Mahbub ul Haq 1934 1998 Pakistani economist contributed articles Forum for Development Studies ,2004 Discussion Paper ,2007 The Development Reader Sharad Chari,Stuart Corbridge,2008 Comprising writings ordered around intentional and imminent development this reader offers a compendium of classical and contemporary debates on development Adam Smith and Karl Marx meet among others Robert Wade Amartya Sen and Jeffrey Sachs New Agenda ,2005 Budgeting for Women's Rights Diane Elson,United Nations Development Fund for Women,2006 This publication examines how budgets and budget policy making processes can be monitored for compliance with human rights standards in particular with the Convention of the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women CEDAW Combining substantive analysis with country examples it explores how a rights based analysis can be applied to public expenditure public revenue macroeconomics of the budget and budget decision making Environment, Development and Change in Rural Asia-Pacific John Connell,Eric Waddell,2007 This volume examines the economic political social and environmental challenges facing rural communities in the Asia Pacific region as global issues intersect with local contexts Such challenges from climatic change and volcanic eruption to population growth and violent civil unrest have stimulated local resilience amongst communities and led to evolving regional institutions and environment management practices changing social relationships and producing new forms of stratification Bringing together case studies from across mainland Southeast Asia and the Island Pacific an expert team of international contributors reveal how communities at the periphery take charge of their lives champion the virtues of their own local systems of production and consumption and engage in the complexities of new structures of development that demand a response to the vacillations of global politics economy and society Inherent in this is the recognition that development as we have come to know it is far from over Each chapter emphasizes the growing recognition that ecological and environmental issues are key to any understanding and analysis of structures of sustainable development Providing diverse multidisciplinary theoretical and empirical perspectives Environment Development and Change in Rural Asia Pacific makes an important contribution to the revitalization of development studies and as such will be essential reading for scholars in the field as well as those with an interest in Asia Pacific studies economic geography and political economy

The Impact of Feminism on Political Concepts and Debates Georgina Blakeley, Valerie Bryson, 2007-10-15 Many feminists have engaged with man made concepts and approaches of traditional political analysis to produce an increasingly sophisticated and wide ranging body of thought This book starts with the idea that such work is not simply something for the girls Rather it has profound implications without which our understanding of political processes will be impoverished This book provides an accessible overview and assessment of the impact of recent feminism Each chapter takes a malestream concept and examines critical debates around it and feminist reactions critiques It analyses the significance of feminism for the concept and considers whether it can simply be extended to include women or whether it should be radically transformed or even abandoned

Uprooting Geographic Thoughts in India Rana P. B. Singh, Oskar Spate, David Edward Sopher, Anath Bandhu Mukerji, 2009 Under the cultural turn and transformation the new intellectual discourses started in the 21st century to search the roots have cross cultural comparison and to see how the old traditions be used in the contemporary worldviews This book is the first attempt dealing with roots of Indian geographical thoughts since its beginning in 1920 It emphasises identity of India and Indianness and consciousness among dweller geographers in India development and status of geography and its recent trends Gaia theory and Indian context in search of cosmic integrity ecospirituality and global message towards interrelatedness Hindu pilgrimages and its contemporary importance Mahatma Gandhi and his contribution to sustainable environmental development for global peace and humanism and new vision to see meeting grounds of the East and the West on the line of reconstruction and reconciliation in the globalising world These essays are selective and thematic therefore overall view of comprehensiveness is lacking But this book is not the end obviously it is a beginning as already other volumes in sequence and continuity are in progress At the end the lead essays representative of the three eras by Spate 1956 Sopher 1973 and Mukerji 1992 are reprinted with a view to assessing the relevance of their challenging message even today

The Chittagong University Journal of Social Science, 2008

How the Aid Industry Works Arjan de Haan, 2009 How the Aid Industry Works provides a concise introduction to the business of development to what aid practices are and how they have evolved Arjan de Haan also assesses the arguments of both proponents and opponents of aid and presents illustrative examples of actual projects and programs Ideal for students encountering the subject of development for the first time the book also serves well as an overview for development practitioners who want a handy reference covering the universe they inhabit Sociologists and Social Progress O. Alexander Miller, 2011 This book utilizes narratives from U S and

Caribbean scholars to examine the viability of sociologists changing the world from below through sporadic interdependent networks Piven 2008 The conclusion reached is that in its current state the academy can do little to improve conditions in society as sociologists are themselves embattled by defeating narratives revolving around poor personal experiences the recalcitrance of Old World history European epistemological meta narratives and the multi paradigmatic criteria for determining sociological knowledge If sociologists are to finally influence society then the academy has to first overcome its calcified European and Anglo American principles of domination

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006 Parergon ,2003 Key Sociological Thinkers Rob Stones,2007-11-06 The second edition of this popular and established text provides a comprehensive guide to 23 of the most influential thinkers in sociology Written by leading academics in the field Key Sociological Thinkers 2e provides a clear and contextualized introduction to classical and contemporary theory Each chapter offers an insightful assessment of a different theorist exploring their lives works and legacies Drawing upon examples from the everyday world an innovative Seeing Things Differently section in every chapter demonstrates how theoretical ideas can be used to illuminate aspects of social life in new ways Included in this new edition Four new chapters looking at Theodor Adorno Michael Mann Dorothy Smith and Zygmunt Bauman Chapter updates on recent developments An important new introduction Three types of contents page to provide easy navigation of the text Useful glossary boxes throughout with their own dedicated contents page to highlight and explain complex theoretical ideas Key Sociological Thinkers 2e provides a stimulating overview of the best of sociological thought from Karl Marx Emile Durkheim and Georg Simmel to Nancy Chodorow Michel Foucault and Anthony Giddens It continues to be an essential text for all students of sociological theory
