Congregations as Learning Communities Dennis G. Campbell, 2000-12-31 In our rapidly evolving religious scene congregations that are open to continuous learning and willing to respond to external and internal change will be the ones that achieve new vitality and health Dennis Campbell describes what those congregations will look like and provides four tools to help a congregation shape its community into what God would have it be Systems thinking congregational culture appreciative inquiry and scenario planning are explained and illustrated and readers will be shown how to apply the principles to their setting Burnout or Breakout John Messer, 2021-01-27 How can church leaders be effective without sacrificing their marriage their family or their health in the process How can good leaders get stuck churches unstuck without becoming another casualty Burnout or Breakout provides answers to both The burnout epidemic among church leaders combined with cultural volatility uncertainty and complexity catalyze with unhealthy church processes to get churches stuck All these forces combine to stifle good leaders until it seems that no reasonable leadership effort can succeed This book brings new insights to churches and church leaders frustrated with making tireless efforts to move the church yet constantly falling short of their goals and objectives It helps church leaders avoid quick fix solutions that actually keep churches stuck by applying systemic long term solutions This book brings hope to stifled leaders on the verge of burnout Building on biblical and experiential evidence the author presents burnout as a systemic problem Seeing from a systems perspective enables leaders to discover how their church really works and provides tools and strategies to help them realign their church system for health and effectiveness Based on a comprehensive introduction to systems thinking leaders are encouraged to see their congregations as complex systems of interrelated and interdependent elements Effective leadership from a systems perspective aligns the church to achieve intended outcomes Based on the account of Jethro and Moses in Exodus 18 leaders are equipped to identify and diagnose church systems designed for burnout and provides strategies to overcome the stifling forces within the church Leaders are further equipped to apply systemic thinking to common church system problems such as declining attendance mission confusion and volunteer shortages Brings hope that stifled leaders and stuck churches can break out of their limiting conditions by investing time and effort to learn and practice seeing from a new systems perspective The Fifth Discipline Fieldbook Art Kleiner, 1994 The Fifth Discipline, 2008

Schools That Learn (Updated and Revised) Peter M. Senge, Nelda Cambron-McCabe, Timothy Lucas, Bryan Smith, Janis Dutton, 2012-07-31 A rich much needed remedy for the standardized institutions that comprise too much of our school system today ideal for teachers and parents intent on resurrecting and fostering students inherent drive to learn An essential resource Daniel H Pink author of DRIVE and A WHOLE NEW MIND Schools that Learn is a magnificent grand book that pays equal attention to the small and the big picture and what's more integrates them There is no book on education change that comes close to Senge et al's sweeping and detailed treatment Classroom school community systems citizenry it's all there The core message is stirring what if we viewed schools as a means of shifting society for the better Michael Fullan author of Change Leader and Learning Places A new edition of the groundbreaking book that brings organizational learning and systems thinking into classrooms and schools showing how to keep our nation's educational system competitive in today's world. Revised and updated with more than 100 pages of new material for the first time since its initial publication in 2000, comes a new edition of the seminal work acclaimed as one of the best books ever written about education and schools. A unique collaboration between the celebrated management thinker and Fifth Discipline author Peter Senge and a team of renowned educators and organizational change leaders, Schools that Learn describes how schools can adapt, grow, and change in the face of the demands and challenges of our society and provides tools, techniques, and references for bringing those aspirations to life. The new revised and updated edition offers practical advice for overcoming the many challenges that face our communities and educational systems today. It shows teachers, administrators, students, parents, and community members how to successfully use principles of organizational learning, including systems thinking and shared vision, to address the challenges that face our nation's schools. In a fast-changing world where school populations are increasingly diverse, children live in ever more complex social and media environments, standardized tests are applied as overly simplistic quick fixes, and advances in science and technology continue to accelerate the pressures on our educational system, these challenges are inescapable. Schools That Learn offers a much-needed way to open dialogue about these problems and provides pragmatic opportunities to transform school systems into learning organizations. Drawing on observations and advice from more than 70 writers and experts on schools and education, this book features methods for implementing organizational learning and explanations of why they work. Compelling stories and anecdotes from the field, classrooms, schools, and communities, charts, tables, and diagrams illustrate systems thinking and other practices. Guiding principles for how to apply innovative practices in all types of school systems, individual exercises useful for both teachers and students, team exercises to foster communication within the classroom, school, or community group, new essays on topics like educating for sustainability, systems thinking in the classroom, and the great game of high school, new recommendations for related books, articles, videotapes, and web sites, and more. Schools That Learn is the essential guide for anyone who cares about the future of education and keeping our nation's schools competitive in our fast-changing world. The Fifth Discipline, 2018. Completely Updated and Revised. This revised edition of Peter Senge's bestselling classic The Fifth Discipline is based on fifteen years of experience in putting the book's ideas into practice. As Senge makes clear in the long run, the only sustainable competitive advantage is your organization's ability to learn faster than the competition. The leadership stories in the book demonstrate the many ways that the core ideas in The Fifth Discipline, many of which seemed radical when first published in 1990, have become deeply integrated into people's ways of seeing the world and their managerial practices. In The Fifth Discipline, Senge describes how companies can rid themselves of the learning disabilities that threaten their productivity and success by adopting the strategies of learning organizations, ones in which new and expansive patterns of thinking are nurtured, collective aspiration is set free, and people are continually learning how to create results they truly desire. The updated and revised Currency edition of this business classic contains over one hundred pages of new material based on interviews with dozens of practitioners at companies like BP Unilever Intel Ford HP Saudi Aramco and organizations like Roca Oxfam and The World Bank It features a new Foreword about the success Peter Senge has achieved with learning organizations since the book s inception as well as new chapters on Impetus getting started Strategies Leaders New Work Systems Citizens and Frontiers for the Future Mastering the disciplines Senge outlines in the book will Reignite the spark of genuine learning driven by people focused on what truly matters to them Bridge teamwork into macro creativity Free you of confining assumptions and mindsets Teach you to see the forest and the trees End the struggle between work and personal time
