The Value of Literature Rafe McGregor,2016-08-22 In The Value of Literature Rafe McGregor employs a unique approach the combination of philosophical work on value theory and critical work on the relationship between form and content to present a new argument for and defence of literary humanism He argues that literature has value for art for culture and for humanity in short that it matters Unlike most contemporary defenders of literary value the author s strategy does not involve arguing that literature is good as a means to one of the various ends that matter to human beings It is not that literature necessarily makes us cleverer more sensitive more virtuous more creative or just generally better people Nor is it true that there is a necessary relation between literature and edification clarification cultural critique catharsis or therapy Rather than offer an argument that forges a tenuous link between literature and truth or literature and virtue or literature and the sacred this book analyses the non derivative sui generic value characteristic of literature and demonstrates why that matters as an end in itself

The Poem as Icon
Margaret H. Freeman,2020-03-13 Poetry is the most complex and intricate of human language used across all languages and cultures Its relation to the worlds of human experience has perplexed writers and readers for centuries as has the question of evaluation and judgment what makes a poem work and endure The Poem as Icon focuses on the art of poetry to explore its nature and function not interpretation but experience not what poetry means but what it does Using both historic and contemporary approaches of embodied cognition from various disciplines Margaret Freeman argues that a poem s success lies in its ability to become an icon of the felt being of reality Freeman explains how the features of semblance metaphor schema and affect work to make a poem an icon with detailed examples from various poets By analyzing the ways poetry provides insights into the workings of human cognition Freeman claims that taste beauty and pleasure in the arts are simply products of the aesthetic faculty and not the aesthetic faculty itself The aesthetic faculty she argues should be understood as the science of human perception and therefore constitutive of the cognitive processes of attention imagination memory discrimination expertise and judgment
