Wessells,2007 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Proclivity to Genocide Grace O. Okoye,2014-08-20 This book examines proclivity to genocide in the protracted killings that have continued for decades in the northern Nigeria ethno religious conflict spanning from the 1966 northern Nigeria massacres of thousands of Ibos up to the present ongoing killings between extremist Muslims and Christians or non Muslims in the region It explores the ethnic and religious dimensions of the conflict over five phases to investigate genocidal proclivity to the killings and the extent to which religion foments and escalates the conflict This book adopts a conceptual analytic approach of establishing similarity of genocidal patterns to the northern Nigeria ethno religious conflict by examining genocidal occurrences and massacres in history particularly the twentieth century contemporary genocides for an understanding of genocide With this reference frame the study structures a Genocide Proclivity Model for identifying inclinations to genocide and derives a substantive theory using the Strauss and Corbin 1990 approach By identifying genocidal intent as underlying the various manifestations and causes of genocide in specific genocide cases the book establishes that genocidal proclivity or the intent to exterminate the other on the basis of religion and or ethnicity underlies most of the northern Nigerian episodic but protracted killings The book s analytic framework and approach are grounded in identifiable and provable evidences of specific intent to annihilate the other mostly involving extremist Muslims intent to cleanse northern Nigeria of Christians and other non Muslims through the exclusionary ideology of imposition of the Sharia Law and to force assimilation or extermination through massacres and genocidal killings of those who refuse to assimilate or adopt the Muslim ideology The study establishes that the genocidal inclinations to the conflict have remained latent because of the intermittent but protracted nature of the killings and lends credence to the conception of genocidal intent and its covertness in situations of genocidal intermittency The book unearths the latency of episodic genocide in the northern Nigeria ethno religious conflict prescribes recommendations and launches a clarion call for international intervention to stop the genocide Food, Cuisine, and Cultural Competency for Culinary, Hospitality, and Nutrition Professionals Sari Edelstein,2011 Food Cuisine and Cultural Competency for Culinary Hospitality and Nutrition Professionals comprehensively covers unique food traditions as they apply to health The text explores the critical importance of cultural sensitivity and competency in today s work setting addresses health literacy issues of diverse client bases and helps readers identify customer communication techniques that enable professionals to establish trust with clients of ethnicity not their own Written and peer reviewed by experts in the culture discussed each chapter in this groundbreaking text covers a distinct region or culture and discusses the various contexts that contribute to nutrition and health lifestyles eating patterns ethnic foods menu planning communication verbal and non verbal and more This book is consistent with The American Dietetic Association s Cultural Competence Strategic Plan
