Mohammed and Islam Ignác Goldziher, 1917 Global Halal Perspectives: Past, Present and Future (UUM Press)

Risyawati Mohamed Ismail, 2020-06-01 Halal has become more than just an eating habit of Muslims around the world in today's global economy. It has evolved into a giant economic phenomenon which has affected the global ecosystem beyond the boundaries of religion, politics, culture, and ethnicity. Politics, various halal businesses, social entities, including geographical location, play a part to reflect the complexity of the halal ecosystem. Discussions on its various aspects are richly illustrated through interdisciplinary global perspectives from students and scholars working across disciplines: social sciences, religious studies, humanities, and sciences. Global Halal Perspectives: Past, Present and Future brings forth a special set of knowledge and information that even the public will find interesting. This book is the outcome of a research funded by the Ministry of Higher Education (MOHE) Malaysia through its Fundamental Research Grant Scheme (S O 13246). Islamic Horizons, 2003

Specific areas of study include the factors involved in the founding of the Institute within the context of Arab and Jordanian higher education, the role of traditional Islamic philosophy in the function of the Institute, and the role of the anthropological concept of liminal space in the clarification of students' values during the academic program. Data for the research came from thirty hours of interviews completed with over thirty individuals, a twenty-item survey completed by sixty-five students, classroom observations, and analysis of an array of documents from the League of Arab States, the Jordanian Ministry of Higher Education and Research, the Jordanian Accreditation Association, the World Islamic Science and Education University, and the Institute for Traditional Islamic Art and Architecture.
