Getting To The Table The Processes Of International Prenegotiation:

Getting to the Table Janice Gross Stein,1989 A significant contribution toward a broader theory of negotiation Prenegotiation triggers shapes and structures the negotiations that follow and contributes in important ways to the learning process Foreign Affairs Getting to the Table I. William Zartman,Janice Stein,1989 The Making of the International Solar Alliance Vyoma Jha,2024-02-02 This book presents a case study of the creation of the International Solar Alliance ISA as a treaty based international organization Drawing on the political economy approach in the study of international law it identifies the politics players and process behind the making of the ISA Research Handbook on Conflict Prevention Timo Kivimäki,2024-06-05 The Research Handbook on Conflict Prevention is a cohesive and comparative analysis of the ways in which organised violence is combatted Renowned experts dissect the complex problem of conflict prevention by investigating its three main aspects agency methods and timing International Negotiation and Political Narratives Fen Osler Hampson,Amrita Narlikar,2022-02-14 This book shows that political narratives can promote or thwart the prospects for international cooperation and are major factors in international negotiation processes in the 21st century In a world that is experiencing waves of right wing and left wing populism international cooperation has become increasingly difficult This volume focuses on how the intersubjective identities of political parties and narratives shape their respective values interests and negotiating behaviors and strategies Through a series of comparative case studies the book explains how and why narratives contribute to negotiation failure or deadlock in some circumstances and why in others they do not because a new narrative that garners public and political support has emerged through the process of negotiation The book also examines how narratives interact with negotiation principles and alter the bargaining range of a negotiation including the ability to make concessions This book will be of much interest to students of international negotiation economics security studies and international relations Conflicted are the Peacemakers Eric N. Budd,2012-12-20 This unique survey examines how the inherent ambivalence of Palestinians and Israeli moderates toward the peace process and one another undermined the Oslo Peace Accords International Mediation in Civil Wars Timothy D Sisk,2009-01-08 This book evaluates the role of international mediators in bringing civil wars to an end and makes the case for powerful peacemaking using incentives and sanctions to leverage parties into peace As internal violence within countries is a hugely significant threat to international peace in the post Cold War era the question of how these wars end has become an urgent research and policy question This volume explores a critical aspect of peacemaking that has yet to be sufficiently evaluated the turbulent period beyond the onset of formal or open negotiations to end civil wars and the clinching of an initially sustainable negotiated settlement The book argues that the transnational flow of weapons resources and ideas means that when civil wars today end they are more likely to do so at the negotiating table than on the battlefield It uses bargaining theory to develop an analytical framework to evaluate peace processes moving from stalemate in wars to negotiated settlement and it rigorously analyses the experiences of five cases of negotiated transitions from war and the role of international mediators South Africa Liberia Burundi Kashmir and Sri Lanka

International Multiparty Mediation and Conflict Management Sinisa Vukovic, 2015-10-05 This volume aims to provide a detailed explanation of the effects of cooperation and coordination on international multiparty mediation in conflicts Contemporary scholarship stresses that the crucial ingredients for a successful multiparty mediation are consistency in interests and cooperation and coordination between mediators This book seeks to supplement that understanding by investigating how much the consistency of interests and cooperation and coordination affect the overall process and what happens to the mediation process when mediating parties do not share the same idea and interest in finding a common solution At the same time it explores the obstacles in achieving coordination and coherence between various mediators in such an environment and how to surmount the problems that multiple mediators face when operating without a common script in attempting to mediate a negotiated settlement The study investigates three distinct mechanisms both on the systemic and contextual level that have the potential to deter defection from a potential member of the multiparty mediation coalition geo political shifts changes in the conflict dynamics and mediators ability to bargain for a cooperative relationship As the number of states and international actors that are involved in mediation increases a careful assessment is necessary not only of their relative institutional strengths and weaknesses but also of how to promote complementary efforts and how to synchronize the whole process when one actor is transferring the responsibilities for mediation to others This book will be of much interest to students of mediation conflict management war and conflict studies security studies and IR The Open Access version of this book available at <https://www.routledge.com/International-Multiparty-Mediation-and-Conflict-Management-Challenges-of-Vukovic/p/book/9781138087897> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Iran's Nuclear Diplomacy Bernd Kaussler, 2013-07-31 This book examines the dynamics of relations and the substance of the negotiations between the international community and Iran over the latter's nuclear programme Iran's nuclear programme and the alleged threat to international peace and security remains one of the most important issues in the United States as well as in European foreign affairs In the US Iran has dominated the political discourse for over three decades and Europe has spent considerable political capital in finding a diplomatic solution to Iran's nuclear ambitions While relations between both states remain subject to mutual hostility the EU remains a channel of communication and since 2003 has maintained a multilateral negotiation framework By and large the narrative on nuclear negotiations is dominated by constructivist and realist literature portraying relations between the US and Iran in ideological terms as a prolonged struggle for regional influence Embedded within conflict resolution and diplomatic theory this work attempts to bridge this gap Drawing upon primary documents and interviews the text examines negotiation behaviour and strategies and tools of statecraft as well as analysing technical aspects of initiatives concerning the nuclear programme This book will be of much interest to students of nuclear proliferation international diplomacy Middle Eastern politics security studies and IR in general The Jerusalem Journal of International Relations ,1992 The Negotiation Process and the Resolution of International Conflicts P. Terrence Hopmann,1996 P Terrence Hopmann predicts that as the post cold war era progresses diplomacy will increasingly replace military action as a means for resolving international disputes in all but the most desperate situations Indeed he foresees an era dominated by many smaller conflicts of interest and identity both within and between states as superseding the age of the global standoff between nuclear superpowers Hopmann contends that the avoidance of violence in these situations and the resolution of underlying conflicts will increasingly give center stage to negotiation the primary activity of diplomacy In this comprehensive appraisal of the negotiation process Hopmann synthesizes the vast body of literature on the subject and constructs a framework for analyzing the many dimensions of international negotiations The Making of NAFTA Maxwell A. Cameron,Brian W. Tomlin,2000 This text provides the first full three country account of the negotiations surrounding the controversial North American Free Trade Agreement Multicultural Conflict Management in Changing Societies L.
