Graphic Designers In Europe No 3:

Jan Van Toorn Rick Poynor,2008 Jan van Toorn is one of the most significant and influential Dutch graphic designers to have emerged since the early 1960s His designs persistently call attention to their status as visual contrivances obliging the viewer to make an effort to process their complexities Van Toorn wants the public to measure the motives of both the client and the designer who mediates the client s message against their own experiences of the world He hoped in this way to stimulate a more active and skeptical view of art communication media ownership and society Projects such as Van Toorn s posters and catalogues for the Van Abbemuseum in Eindhoven and his long running series of calendars for the printing firm Mart Spruijt are powerful demonstrations of graphic design used as a means of commentary and as a tool of critique Later as director of the Jan van Eyck Academy Van Toorn drew together all the strands of his critical practice into a multi levelled educational initiative that urged designers to think harder about design s role in shaping contemporary reality How to be a Graphic Designer, Without Losing Your Soul Adrian Shaughnessy,2005 This guidebook addresses the concerns of young designers who want to earn a living by doing expressive and meaningful work but want to avoid becoming a hired drone working on soulless projects It offers straight talking advice on how to establish your design career and practical suggestions for running a successful business Jewish Dealers and the European Art Market, c. 1860-1940 Silvia Davoli,Tom Stammers,2025-01-23 Before the tragedy of the Holocaust many of the leading art and antiques dealers across Europe were Jewish establishing dynamic cross Channel international and transatlantic networks Aside from a few famous examples however we are only at the beginning of exploring the diversity of Jewish dealers commercial and cultural worlds and reflecting on the particular conditions that made possible their dramatic expansion within the profession Adopting a wider geography than any previous study this book brings together a team of distinguished international contributors to consider Jewish art dealers as an interconnected cohort tied together by common strategies and a shared vulnerability After an extended historiographical introduction the volume presents case studies and trends from 1860 1940 including Jewish family businesses in Western Europe the role of Jews as mediators of art from East Asia the antisemitism and suspicion faced by Jewish dealers Jews as theorists exhibition makers and promoters of modern art and the geographical mobility and professional reinvention of Jewish dealers in times of economic and political crisis With a wide variety of illustrations including paintings decorative arts historic photographs and archival material the volume adopts a mix of methodological approaches to analyse a key chapter in Jewish cultural history and in the history of the international art market Includes Afterword by Charles Dellheim author of Belonging and Betrayal How Jews Made the Art World Modern 2021

Contemporary Designers Sara Pendergast,1997 This volume offers an insight into the lives and works of the most influential designers of this era in one complete guide Some of the designers included are Kenji Ejuan frogdesign Sori Yanagi and Herman Zapf Josef Müller-Brockmann Kerry William Purcell,2006-10 In the ever evolving world of contemporary graphic design those who came before are often forgotten in the search of the next big thing It is surprising then that many new fashionable designs intentionally conjure work that was created by designers of an earlier era designers who worked not with a computer but with pen and paper designers like Josef M ller Brockmann 13 13 One of the twentieth century s most important graphic designers the Swiss born M ller Brockmann is the father of functional objective design and an influential figure for generations of designers around the world While many of his contemporaries moved to the United States and elsewhere in Europe M ller Brockmann based himself in Zurich and established his reputation there He adapted his approach to a changing world moving from an early illustrative style to a modern constructivist approach making full use of geometrical form and the grid system to provide an underlying structure to graphic work 13 13 M ller Brockmann is perhaps most known for his large array of music posters produced from the early 1950s to the early 1970s which graphically represent the musical character of each specific performance In addition to these iconic designs M ller Brockmann completed a number of books on graphic design and its history including the influential The Graphic Designer and his Design Problems 13 13 This volume is the most definitive monograph to be published on Josef M ller Brockmann It traces M ller Brockmann s life from his childhood through his early training rarely seen designs for the theater famous posters for the Zurich art scene corporate design work for clients like IBM and finally his efforts to educate young designers With assistance from the Museum f r Gestaltung Zurich and the Josef M ller Brockmann Archive this book is extensively illustrated with completed works period photography rare sketches concept drawings and personal photos Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner, Mary F.
