Polynesian Decorative Designs Ruth H. Greiner,1923 Early American Grave Stone Designs Elmer Lewis Smith,1968 Megaliths and rituals at Tustrup, Denmark Palle Eriksen,Anne Birgitte Gebauer,Torsten Madsen,2023-12-18 The complex of megaliths near Tustrup is a prime example of the megalithic sites used by early farming communities in Stone Age Europe Excavated in the 1950s by Moesgaard Museum the site continues to hold great contemporary and scientific value Its significance relates primarily to the unusual find of a ritual complex connected to two dolmens and passage grave The question of why monumental sites played such an important role for early farming communities is currently the focus of several international studies In Denmark which boasts one of the world s largest concentrations of megalithic monuments as well as a strong tradition for research in the area archaeologists have had a longstanding wish to contribute to this discussion with a comprehensive publication about the unique complex of megaliths near Tustrup Experts have researched the finds and meticulously analysed the site and its artefacts These detailed studies have led to surprising and well documented interpretations of the megalithic tombs the construction history of the ritual site and their function along with the inter relationship between the monuments R. H. Cromek, Engraver, Editor, and Entrepreneur Dennis M. Read,2016-12-05 Based on meticulous archival research Dennis M Read s study offers the most accurate and thorough account to date of the engraver editor and arts enthusiast R H Cromek Though he is best known today as William Blake s nemesis Cromek made significant contributions to the vitality of the arts in nineteenth century Britain Read traces Cromek s early years as an accomplished engraver his collaborations and falling out with Blake and his editing and publishing ventures showing him to be a pioneer who recognized the opportunities of the emerging market economy Read s descriptions of Cromek s disastrous associations with the Chalcographic Society his publication of Robert Burns s unpublished works and his duping by the perpetrator of a literary hoax make for fascinating reading and tell us much about the commercial art and publishing scenes in England and Scotland Perhaps most important Read salvages Cromek s reputation as an unscrupulous exploiter of Blake and others A fuller and more balanced portrait emerges that shows Cromek s efforts to bring the arts to emerging cities of the midlands and beyond describes his friendships and associations with luminaries of the fine arts and literature such as Leigh Hunt and Benjamin West and challenges more biased reports of his successes and failures as an entrepreneur Robert Blair's The Grave Robert N. Essick,Robert Blair,Morton D. Paley,1982 Framing Sustainability in Language and Communication Maida Kosatica,Sean P. Smith,2025-03-31 This collection brings together established and emerging scholars for a critical framing of sustainability through the lens of language and communication social semiotics and media studies The volume underscores the importance of re envisioning sustainability around not only climate change and biodiversity loss but in broader systems of ecological social and economic imbalances on a global scale The book begins with a visual essay which provides a semiotic foundation for understandings of sustainability across disciplinary approaches in the chapters that follow Subsequent chapters are organized around four thematic parts reframing sustainability in a colonial world the semiotics of sustainability communicating sustainability in everyday life and sustainability communication in the arts A closing commentary by Crispin Thurlow offers critical reflections on sustainability within language and communication research and beyond This book will be of interest to scholars addressing sustainability across diverse disciplines including language and communication social semiotics linguistic anthropology environmental communication media studies and development studies
