In the foreground, there are several sheets of aged, cream-colored paper, some of which appear to be handwritten or printed text, though the details are blurred. Gray, 2020-09-22 Reprint of the original first published in 1869
Gray, 2021 Commemorating the 250th anniversary of the poet's death this volume will introduce new readers to Thomas Gray's Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard. Thomas Gray's Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard has been loved and admired throughout the centuries. First circulated to a select group of friends, it was rushed to official publication in 1751 to avoid pirated copies being sold without the young poet's permission. Praised by Samuel Johnson, reprinted repeatedly in Gray's lifetime, and recited by generations of schoolchildren, it is one of the most famous poems in the English language. This new edition reproduces Agnes Miller Parker's exquisite wood engravings inspired by the poem, which were completed in 1938. All thirty-two stanzas of the poem are accompanied by detailed full-page illustrations.
