Yotvata Lily Singer-Avitz, Etan Ayalon, 2023-01-03 This book presents the final report of the excavations at Yotvata the largest oasis in the Arabah Valley conducted by the Sonia and Marco Nadler Institute of Archaeology of Tel Aviv University in 1974-1980 under the direction of Dr Ze'ev Meshel. The report covers two central sites: a fortified Iron I site and an Early Islamic settlement. The Iron I remains consist of an irregular casemate wall surrounding a courtyard. The location of this site suggests that the settlement was established in order to protect the water sources and to overlook and supervise the nearby crossroads. Based on the relative proximity of the site to Timna it may be concluded that the oasis formed the main source of water and wood for the population involved in copper production in that region. The rich finds uncovered at the Early Islamic settlement including a large courtyard building and a nearby bathhouse among other structures point to habitation from the end of the seventh to the early ninth century CE. The proximity of the settlement to a sophisticated irrigation system qanat and the administrative economic ostraca discovered at the site suggest that it served as the center of an agricultural estate owned by an elite Muslim family. Among the unique finds is a large assemblage of locally produced handmade pottery which is thoroughly studied here. The findings from the excavations at the Yotvata oasis have made a major contribution to the study of Early Islamic settlement and material culture in the greater Arabah region and beyond.

Indian Rock Art and Its Global Context Kalyan Kumar Chakravarty, Robert G. Bednarik, 1997-01-01 This is a unique volume in the history of rock art studies meant at once for the advanced scholar, serious student and the curious but conscientious layman. Co-authored by K. K. Chakravarty and R. G. Bednarik who co-chaired the Rock Art session of the World Archaeological Congress 3 at Delhi in 1994. It is a synoptic but comprehensive survey illustrated by 221 photographs and sketches including 172 photographs in colour. The two scholars have not only described the latest state of research on rock art but also transported rock art studies into the realm of interdisciplinary inter-cultural analysis. Buttressed by an indicative map of the rock art regions, a list of major up-to-date direct dating results on rock art, a glossary of keywords related to spatial-temporal-technological-managerial categories and an index, this volume blends precise dispassionate descriptions with eloquent evocations. It blends conclusions distilled from rigorous hard-headed field research with penetrating criticism and assessment of the evidence. It combines a ruthless brevity and density with extraordinary felicity and clarity of language. Above all it is a wonderful attempt at dealing with the problems of understanding which dog human attempts to comprehend the meaning and shape of human creativity.
