Chapter 1

1. Managerial Accounting and Financial Accounting differ in the following way:

- A. Financial Accounting emphasizes forecasts of future performance.
- B. Financial Accounting summarizes information for the company as a whole.
- C. Financial Accounting is private information for company managers.
- D. Financial Accounting emphasizes timeliness over precision.

Discussion: Managerial accounting emphasizes providing information about segments and products within a company, rather than the company as a whole. Financial accounting creates financial statements that must present all components under common control.

2. Common users of managerial accounting reports include the following:

- A. Operations manager and loan officer
- B. Chief financial officer and public shareholder
- C. Public shareholder and loan officer
- D. Chief financial officer and operations manager

Discussion: Managerial accounting is used by company insiders. Loan officers work for a bank. Shareholders are the external owners of a business.

3. The management function of controlling is carried out through the use of

- A. A performance report that compares budgeted to actual results.
- B. A reconciliation of the beginning and ending retained earnings balances.
- C. A schedule of cash collections and cash payments.
- D. A forecast of next period's production.

Discussion: The control function is evaluating the results of company actions. Only A involves both measuring results and comparison to determine whether the results are favorable or unfavorable.

4. Management accounting is used by

- A. Human resource employees who need to plan hiring
- B. Marketing employees who make decisions on profit achievable through an advertising campaign
- C. Accounting employees who make budget recommendations.
- D. All of the above.

5. The CMA certification requires

- A. A rigorous professional exam only
- B. Experience in financial management only.
- C. A rigorous professional exam and experience in financial management only.
