German Expressionists:

German Expressionist Painting Peter Selz, 2023-04-28 Published in 1957 German Expressionist Painting was the first comprehensive study of one of the most pivotal movements in the art of this century When it was written however German Expressionism seemed like an eccentric manifestation far removed from what was then considered the mainstream of modern art But as historians well know each generation alters the concept of mainstream to encompass those aspects of the past which seem most relevant to the present The impact of German Expressionism on the art and thought of later generations could never have been anticipated at the time of the original writing of this book During the subsequent years an enormous body of scholarly research and an even larger number of popular books on German expressionist art has been printed Numerous monographs and detailed studies on most of the artists exist now and countless exhibitions with accompanying catalogues have taken place Much of this new research could have been incorporated in a revised edition and the bibliography certainly could have been greatly expanded to include the important writings which have been published in Germany the United States and elsewhere since this book was originally issued The author however was faced with the choice of reprinting the original text with only the most necessary alterations such as updating the captions to indicate present locations of the paintings or the preparation of a revised text and bibliography Desirable as a revision appeared present printing costs would have priced the paperback out of reach for students It is for this reason that I decided to reissue the original text which stands on its own as a primary investigation of German Expressionist Painting The German Expressionists Bernard S. Myers, 1957 German Expressionists, 1983 German Expressionist Painting, 1957 Poussin Paintings Barry Herbert, 1983 German Expressionist Painting Peter Selz, 1957 1 copy located in CIRCULATION German Expressionism and the Messianism of a Generation Lisa Marie Anderson, 2011-01-01 This book reads messianic expectation as the defining characteristic of German culture in the first decades of the twentieth century It has long been accepted that the Expressionist movement in Germany was infused with a thoroughly messianic strain Here with unprecedented detail and focus that strain is traced through the work of four important Expressionist playwrights Ernst Barlach Georg Kaiser Ernst Toller and Franz Werfel Moreover these dramatists are brought into new and sustained dialogues with the theorists and philosophers of messianism who were their contemporaries Walter Benjamin Ernst Bloch Martin Buber Hermann Cohen Gershom Scholem In arguing for example that concepts like Bloch's utopian self encounter Selbstbegegnung and Benjamin's messianic now time Jetztzeit reappear as the framework for Expressionism's staging of collective redemption in a new age Anderson forges a previously underappreciated link in the study of Central European thought in the early twentieth century German Expressionism Rose-Carol Washton Long, Ida Katherine Rigby, Nancy Roth, 1995-12-06 An indispensable anthology that immediately renders its predecessors obsolete With its gathering of public and private documents it carries us through the rise and fall of one of the great upheavals of modern art

Robert Rosenblum New York University These essays including many previously unavailable in English are rich with startling new insights into the German Expressionist psyche Elucidating the artists view of government the role of women in modern society and their own ambivalence about the effectiveness of abstract art this anthology is essential reading for all scholars and students of twentieth century art Joan Marter author of Alexander Calder German Expressionist Woodcuts Shane Weller,1994-08-16 Presents over one hundred woodcuts by nearly thirty German Expressionists primarily from the early twentieth century including works by Edvard Munch and Ernst Barlach Graphics of the German Expressionists Serge Sabarsky,1984 German Expressionism Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts,1961 German Expressionism Stephanie Barron,Wolf Dieter Dube,1997 Highlights the visual art films theater and architecture of German Expressionism German Expressionist Sculpture Stephanie Barron,1983 The volume presents a survey of German expressionist sculpture Expressionism was a modernist movement initially in poetry and painting originating in Germany at the beginning of the 20th century Its typical trait is to present the world solely from a subjective perspective distorting it radically for emotional effect in order to evoke moods or ideas Expressionist artists sought to express meaning or emotional experience rather than physical reality The term is sometimes suggestive of emotional angst The Expressionist emphasis on individual perspective has been characterized as a reaction to positivism and other artistic styles such as naturalism and impressionism This work contains more than one hundred and twenty examples of German Expressionist sculpture by thirty three artists Included are sculptures by artists recognized for their work in this medium Ernst Barlach Wilhelm Lehmbruck Georg Kolbe Renee Sintenis Gerhard Marcks as well as sculpture by such figures as Kathe Kollwitz Ernst Ludwig Kirchner Erich Heckel Karl Schmidt Rottluff Emil Nolde Max Beckmann Egon Schiele and Otto Freundlich whose reputations are based on their painting and graphic oeuvres A significant number of works by lesser known artists who belonged to the second generation of Expressionism in the twenties among them Herbert Garbe Conrad Felixmuller Paul Rudolf Henning William Wauer and Christoph Vollare also examined Included in the catalog are examples of the artists varied writings as well as evaluations by contemporary critics scholars writers and poets Seven essays and excerpts from contemporary texts published in translation for the first time highlight the German Expressionists concern with particular materials and their attraction to African and Oceanic art Influence of war on German expressionists. Comparing Ernst Ludwig Kirchner and Georg Baselitz Joséphine Hengstwerth,2019-10-30 Essay from the year 2019 in the subject Art Visual artists grade 72% Birmingham City University course Fine Art language English abstract German art seldom has been easy It is often reminded with its nation s history sometimes expressing its glory but just as often decrying its tumult and suffering Homburg 2003 In times of war a nation or the whole world is brought into chaos and uncertainty Throughout the past hundred years our world has suffered many conflicts and tensions including the first and second world war 1914 1918 1939 1945 and the cold war 1947 1991 In times of war artists feel a great need to respond in their own way Throughout history there have been many different ways of making art during war For instance Liberty Leading the People by Eugene Delacroix from 1830 is one example of a war painting from the French Revolution With the female personification of liberty walking over dead bodies and holding up the French flag as the main focus the painting is heroic and triumphant Other artists use art as a form of propaganda protest or as a way of expressing their individual feelings in response to war suffering and destruction Two German artists considered expressionist from two different generations experiencing similar forms of devastation are Ernst Ludwig Kirchner 6 May 1880 15 June 1938 and Georg Baselitz born 23 January 1938 Their role as expressionist artists and the influence of war is the focus of the following discussion

Art of the 20th Century Karl Ruhrberg, Klaus Honnef, Manfred Schneckenburger, Christiane Fricke, 2000 The original edition of this ambitious reference was published in hardcover in 1998 in two oversize volumes 10x13 This edition combines the two volumes into one it s paperbound flexi cover the paper has a plastic coating smaller 8x10 and affordable for art book buyers with shallower pockets none of whom should pass it by The scope is encyclopedic half the work originally the first volume is devoted to painting the other half to sculpture new media and photography Chapters are arranged thematically and each page displays several examples in color of work under discussion The final section a lexicon of artists includes a small bandw photo of each artist as well as biographical information and details of work writings and exhibitions Ruhrberg and the three other authors are veteran art historians curators and writers as is editor Walther c Book News Inc
