Forgotten Faces:

Forgotten Faces: Family Caregiver Voices Robert Tiller, 2020-09-04 Forgotten Faces Family Caregiver Voices takes readers directly into the homelives of actual caregivers to cognitively impaired family members. This captivating nonfiction narrative rotates through the entire caregiving journeys of Fred, Janice, Alice, and Yvonne, whose wife, second husband, mother, and grandfather were diagnosed with Alzheimer's dementia. Dr. Tiller's personal and professional commentary compliments their earnest firsthand accounts to provide solace for prior caregivers, empowerment for new or future caregivers, and startling insights for their families, friends, neighbors, employers, or policymakers. A portion of Forgotten Faces Family Caregiver Voices proceeds will be directed to assist caregiver support groups. Forgotten Faces Family Caregiver Voices captures the very essence of the limits placed on caregivers and offers an extraordinary view into their world. KATHLEEN M WINTERS, MS, LN, Executive Director, Alzheimer's Family Organization. Forgotten Faces is a compassionate look at an imminent problem that will touch most Americans' lives in the next two decades. This book is one you will want to keep as you plan to take care of someone dealing with cognitive impairment or even plan your own care. ANAND KUMAR, PhD. There is a bonus in this book. Tiller explains the necessary legal documents that must be prepared and signed before the onset of this dementia. His segments on financial planning and the need for long-term care insurance are invaluable. GREGORY G. GAY, P.A., Certified Elder Law Attorney.

Look Homeward, Angel. A Story of the Buried Life Thomas Clayton Wolfe, 2022-07-21. Set against the backdrop of the fictional town of Altamont, Catawba, Look Homeward, Angel: A Story of the Buried Life is a profound exploration of the tumultuous journey of growth and self-discovery. Thomas Clayton Wolfe's literary masterpiece delves into the life of Eugene Gant, an avatar for Wolfe himself, painting the canvas of his youth from the dawn of the 20th century through the pivotal moment of leaving his home at nineteen. The novel's rich, lyrical prose and Wolfe's use of stream-of-consciousness technique place it within the larger context of American modernist literature, illuminating the complex interplay between individual ambitions and familial bonds. Thomas Clayton Wolfe, a titan of early 20th-century American literature, weaves his own life experiences into the tapestry of Eugene Gant's narrative, creating a semi-autobiographical tome that resonates with the authenticity of lived experience. Wolfe's emotional odyssey through his own upbringing in Asheville, North Carolina, informs the vivid portrayals of longing and the quest for meaning within the confines of domestic life, thereby offering a raw and candid perspective on the American South's cultural landscape. Recommended for avid readers of classic American literature and those intrigued by the intricacies of personal development, Look Homeward, Angel stands as an enduring testament to the transformative power of memory and the indefatigable human spirit. Wolfe's sweeping narrative offers a reflective, melancholic yet ultimately universal account of the hurdles of youth, the ache of remembrance, and the ceaseless pull of home. This narrative is as much about finding one's place in the world as it is about the beauty and pain of growing up. Documenting the Documentary Barry Keith Grant, Jeannette Sloniowski, 2013-12-16 Essays on important documentary films from a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives Documenting the Documentary features essays by 27 film scholars from a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives Each essay focuses on one or two important documentaries engaging in questions surrounding ethics ideology politics power race gender and representation but always in terms of how they arise out of or are involved in the reading of specific documentaries as particular textual constructions By closely reading documentaries as rich visual works this anthology fills a void in the critical writing on documentaries which tends to privilege production over aesthetic pleasure As we increasingly perceive and comprehend the world through visual media understanding the textual strategies by which individual documentaries are organized has become critically important Documenting the Documentary offers clear serious and insightful analyses of documentary films and is a welcome balance between theory and criticism abstract conceptualization and concrete analysis
