Forsaking All Reason:

Forsaking All Reason Jenny Cartwright,1994-01-01 Narratives of Catastrophe Nasrin Qader,2009-08-25 Narratives of Catastrophe tells the story of the relationship between catastrophe in the senses of down turn and break and narration as recounting in the senses suggested by the French term recit in selected texts by three leading writers from Africa Qader's book begins by exploring the political implications of narrating catastrophic historical events Through careful readings of singular literary texts on the genocide in Rwanda and on Tazmamart a secret prison in Morocco under the reign of Hassan II Qader shows how historical catastrophes enter language and how this language is marked by the catastrophe it recounts Not satisfied with the extra literary characterizations of catastrophe in terms of numbers laws and naming she investigates the catastrophic in catastrophe arguing that catastrophe is always an effect of language and thought The recit becomes a privileged site because the difficulties of thinking and speaking about catastrophe unfold through the very movements of storytelling This book intervenes in important ways in the current scholarship in the field of African literatures It shows the contributions of African literatures in elucidating theoretical problems for literary studies in general such as storytelling's relationship to temporality subjectivity and thought Moreover it addresses the issue of storytelling which is of central concern in the context of African literatures but still remains limited mostly to the distinction between the oral and the written The notion of recit breaks with this duality by foregrounding the inaugural temporality of telling and of writing as repetition The final chapters examine catastrophic turns within the philosophical traditions of the West and in Islamic thought highlighting their interconnections and differences The Acts and Monuments of John Foxe John Foxe,1877
